

Little Steps to Prep

About the Group

Little Steps to Prep is a group program for kinder aged children who will be commencing Foundation in the year ahead.

This group is designed to support your child with essential school readiness skills with each session based on a classic children's story book. Little Steps to Prep will be run by Speech Pathologists and Occupational Therapists at a ratio of one therapist to three participants, using a strengths-based and neurodiversity affirming approach.

Program Highlights:

- Group Time: Explore stories and discuss plans for the day.
- Transition Skills: Support with transitioning away from parents/caregivers and practise moving from one task to another.
- Fine Motor skills: Build on writing, cutting, and pasting skills.
- Interaction with peers: Eat lunch with peers and engage in outdoor/indoor play with peers.
- Building Pre Literacy Skills
- And Much More: Boost confidence, build resilience, enhance creativity, and strengthen communication skills!
