

Little Fox Friends (Boys) Group

About the Group

The Little Fox Friends (Boys) Group is designed to provide a safe and supportive environment for boys to connect with peers and practice building and maintaining connections and friendships. We are taking expressions of interest for children aged 5-12 years. Children will be grouped according to skill level and interests.

This group would be appropriate for your child/student if they would benefit from support with:

- Self-confidence & self-esteem
- Conversation skills
- Sharing & empathy skills
- Taking Turns
- Negotiating and compromise
- Team work
- Learning appropriate ways to win and lose
- Emotional and self regulation skills
- Play development and play skills
- Building resilience and flexibility
- Positive & joyful experiences with others
- Coping with conflict
