

Oakley Park Museum

Professional Photography Requirements

Last updated May 2021.

Thank you for your interest in photography at Oakley Park Museum! We ask that you call and schedule in advance to avoid any potential conflicts with other events or to hear the latest on potential construction and safety information. Review this packet and contact us with any questions.

Oakley Park Museum was completed by Capt. Daniel Byrd Jr. in 1835; opened as a Museum in 1941. Displays include American History from The War of 1812 up to the Spanish American War. The museum is available for tours, luncheons, and private events. Oakley Park Museum is a 501(c)(3) Nonprofit. Help us reach 100 years of education and outreach!

Call 803-637-4027 | Oakley Park Museum 300 Columbia Road, Edgefield 29824

The Grand Front Porch

You must call and schedule to use the porch for professional portraits. A donation of $20 is requested and secures your use of the porch for up to 2 hours*. You absolutely must schedule in advance not only for use but also for any additional safety information.

Photography by M Eland ©2020

*Please contact us for your particular needs

The Grounds

Please call and schedule in advance to avoid any potential conflicts with other events. A $10 donation is requested and secures your use of the grounds for professional portrait photography for 2 hours*.

Photography by S K Sealy ©2020

*Please contact us for your particular needs

Interior

This is normally limited to photographs to the certain rooms, including parlor, library and hallways*. Use of the house requires a docent present. A $40 donation is requested to secure use of the interior for professional portrait photography for up to 2 hours.

*Please contact us for your particular needs