Education Director's Report

Easter Baking

Easter Lamb Cake (Velikonoční Beránek) really is a cake that is just shaped like a lamb – no mutton. The forms are still manufactured, but I am honored to have inherited my mother's, and have continued the tradition since she passed. Most any type of cake recipe will work: yellow cake, pound cake, etc., or traditional recipes can be found online. Beránek can be covered with white icing or even chocolate icing, and decorated in various ways. They make a wonderful grandma – grandchild project.

Today these cakes represent Christ as the sacrificial Lamb of God. The tradition of eating lamb on Easter has its roots in early Passover observances. Accustomed to eating roast lamb on Passover, Jews who converted to Christianity continued the tradition at Easter. Czechs who couldn't afford lamb for Easter instead made a lamb-shaped cake.

Judas Buns (Jidáše) are a sweet pastry most frequently shaped into spirals or knots, and coated with honey after baking. Jidáše are shaped to look as if they were made from a rope on which the apostle Judas hanged himself after he had betrayed Jesus. They are traditionally baked on Holy Wednesday. The legend goes that if you eat one of these buns on sunrise of Holy Thursday, you will be protected from human betrayal, snake bites and even bee stings for the following year.

Easter Stuffing (Velikonoční Nádivka)

On Holy Saturday velikonoční nádivka is baked as the first meat-based meal after the 40-day long Lenten fast before Easter. It's full of green spring herbs, eggs, butter, stale bread dipped in milk, and various smoked meat – pork, klobase, and/or rabbit or mutton. The velikonoční nádivka used to be baked in large quantities and eaten over the course of the whole Easter. Nádivka has other names in various regions of the Czech Republic: hlavička, řežábek, sekanina.

Sweet Easter Bread (Velikonoční) sweet bread with rum-soaked raisins with slivered almonds. It's round with Christ. Mazanec is one of the oldest Czech history. It comes from the means to anoint. It is traditionally Saturday, and is eaten throughout Mazanec or Bochánek is a and dried fruit and topped a cross on top to represent documented Easter foods in expression, "mazat," which baked on White / Holy Holy Week.

Recipes are easily found online for foods.

YOU

“You cannot bring about prosperity by discouraging thrift.
You cannot strengthen the weak by weakening the strong.
You cannot help the wage earner by pulling down the wage payer.
You cannot further the brotherhood of man by encouraging class hatred.
You cannot help the poor by discouraging the rich.
You cannot establish sound security by spending more than you earn.
You cannot build character and courage by taking away man’s initiative and independence.
You cannot help man permanently by doing for them what they could and should do themselves.”

A. Lincoln

NI ZISK, NI SLAVU NEITHER PROFIT, NOR GLORY

All too often, members are turned off to Sokol – not by its ideals, programs, or history, but by personality conflicts. We should all examine ourselves and our behavior.

We should sincerely attempt to heal every misunderstanding we have had or now have. Drain off your grievances. Practice liking people until you learn to do so genuinely. Never miss an opportunity to say a word of congratulations upon someone’s achievement or express sympathy in sorrow or disappointment. Give spiritual strength to people and they will give genuine affection to you. Cultivate the quality of being interesting, so people will get something of value from associating with you. Don’t be egotistical or dogmatic. Guard against the impression that you know it all. Our greatest asset is the human resource. The relative success of a unit is determined by the quality of its members. The building of an effective Sokol Unit is only possible through leaders who understand human behavior.

The Chinese philosopher Lao-Tse wrote the following 2500 years ago: “A leader is best when people barely know he exists; not so good when people obey and acclaim him; worse when people despise him. Fail to honor people and they fail to honor you.” But when a good leader, who talks little, has done his work and fulfilled his aim, they will say, “We did it ourselves.”

Our Sokol founders said it simply:
NIETHER PROFIT, NOR GLORY!

Bro. Paul Lebloch – National Educational Director

“Perseverance is the hard work you do after you get tired of doing the hard work you already did.”

PLEASE ENCOURAGE YOUR FAMILY, FRIENDS, AND RELATIVES TO JOIN.

Consider joining Sokol KHB Ennis for 2021!

Sokol KHB Ennis is entering its 113th year and there have been many changes since the organization was formed back in 1908. Its core foundations have remained solid, however, in that the organization is there to serve its members and to provide them not only with the finest gymnastics, volleyball, swimming, music and dancing facilities in the district but also to act as a professional host to many special social and cultural occasions we put on each year.

It is certainly true that while the sport of gymnastics – the coaching and the competition – is at the heart of what we provide, we are also keen to ensure that the social and cultural element meets the expectations of all our members. With that being an important focus, we always welcome our members' input.

SAVE THE SOKOL ENNIS SWIMMING POOL

Dear Members & Friends of Sokol Ennis,

Sokol Ennis' current swimming pool was built in 1972. There have not been any major renovations made to the pool except for maintenance and in recent years, painting, patching, and replacement of pumps and motors. Sad to say, but the pool is in dire need of repair!!!

We solicited quotes from four reputable pool companies to bid on resurfacing the inside of the pool, repair the coping around the pool, and to replace the underwater lights. As you can imagine, the cost is not cheap. Since COVID, Sokol Ennis has not had the cash flow for this kind of renovation project. This project is needing a minimum of $75,000 to restore the pool.

We are soliciting donations, sponsors, ideas for fundraisers, and anyone willing to help with this endeavor. Due to the current condition of the pool and the uncertainty of COVID this year, we are unsure the pool will be able to open this summer. This does provide us with an excellent opportunity to make the necessary renovations if funds are raised within the next couple of months.

Please contact us at 972-875-7959 or facilities@sokolennis.com if you are able to help.

Thank you & Nazdar!
