SAVE THE SOKOL ENNIS SWIMMING POOL

Dear Members & Friends of Sokol Ennis,

Originally Published February 2021

Sokol Ennis' current swimming pool was built in 1972. There have not been any major renovations made to the pool except for maintenance and in recent years, painting, patching, and replacement of pumps and motors. Sad to say, but the pool is in dire need of repair!!!

We solicited quotes from four reputable pool companies to bid on resurfacing the inside of the pool, repair the coping around the pool, and to replace the underwater lights. As you can imagine, the cost is not cheap. Since COVID, Sokol Ennis has not had the cash flow for this kind of renovation project. This project is needing a minimum of $75,000 to restore the pool.

We are soliciting donations, sponsors, ideas for fundraisers, and anyone willing to help with this endeavor. Due to the current condition of the pool and the uncertainty of COVID this year, we are unsure the pool will be able to open this summer. This does provide us with an excellent opportunity to make the necessary renovations if funds are raised within the next couple of months.

Please contact us at 972-875-7959 or facilities@sokolennis.com if you are able to help.
Thank you & Nazdar!

Czech Christmas Traditions

The traditional old Czech Christmas season lasted most of the month of December. The Christmas holiday season officially begins on the night of December 5 - 6, St. Nicholas (Svatý Mikuláš) Day. Children put one of their shoes outside the door the evening of Dec. 5 in hopes of it being filled with treats, not coal or onions, by morning. It is believed that St. Nicholas descends from heaven with an angel and a devil to remind children of the “rewards” of good and evil.

Then begins the baking of cookies, like vanilla crescents (Vanilkove Rohlicky), gingerbread cookies (Perniky), shortbread type cookies often having a bit of jam in the center (Cukrovi), and many more. Very traditional is a sweet bread braided with nuts and raisins, (vánočka, also called houska), pictured below. The baked goods are shared with friends and relatives because this is the season for visiting. (Recipes are easily found online.)

December 24, Christmas Eve (Štědrý den, or “generous day”) is the day for fasting. Supper begins at 6:00 p.m. and would traditionally be carp, potato salad and fish or barley soup. Carp are farm-raised in Bohemia and have been a staple fish for poorer Czechs for centuries. The fish can be fried, broiled, baked, made into soup or prepared in a gelatin mold like aspic.

Legend has it that if you fast all day on Christmas Eve, you will be able to see a golden pig in the evening (zlaté prasátko), foretelling good fortune and not dying during the coming year.

During this meal, no one but the woman of the house is allowed to leave the table. When everyone is finished eating, it is time to listen for the jingle of a bell to signal that it is time for the Christmas Tree and gift exchange. “I heard the bell, didn’t you.” Everyone rushes to the tree. Gifts are exchanged after dinner on December 24 instead of the morning of December 25, as is common in the U.S.

The tree had been purchased earlier in the month but kept hidden. Only the head of the household decorates the tree. No one else is allowed to see it until after dinner on Christmas Eve. Somehow the decorated tree has miraculously appeared in the parlor along with all the wrapped gifts while the family was eating.

Midnight Mass or Mass early on Christmas morning is in order for many, but this tradition and the fasting have been lost by many Czechs during the generations raised under the secular philosophy of Communism.

Christmas dinner on December 25 is the real feast with vegetables, fruits, pastries and of course, the Czech dumpling (knedlick). The bird of honor is usually duck or goose, however, turkey has found its way to the Czech Republic and Slovakia.

Veselé Vánoce a Šťastný Nový Rok

PLEASE ENCOURAGE YOUR FAMILY, FRIENDS, AND RELATIVES TO JOIN.

Consider joining Sokol KHB Ennis for 2022!

Sokol KHB Ennis is entering its 114th year and there have been many changes since the organization was formed back in 1908. Its core foundations have remained solid, however, in that the organization is there to serve its members and to provide them not only with the finest gymnastics, volleyball, swimming, music and dancing facilities in the district but also to act as a professional host to many special social and cultural occasions we put on each year.

It is certainly true that while the sport of gymnastics – the coaching and the competition – is at the heart of what we provide, we are also keen to ensure that the social and cultural element meets the expectations of all our members. With that being an important focus, we always welcome our members' input.

Czech Title: "Jménem krále"
Written in the 13th century, Ulrich of Chlum is sent by the King of Bohemia to witness a marriage that will unite two rivaling aristocratic families in order to establish a peaceful balance in North Bohemia. On his way there, Ulrich comes upon a murdered merchant who was delivering goods in the wedding feast. Upon arrival, he is greeted warmly by the family of the bride and is prepared to witness the wedding until a series of murders occurs. Ulrich eventually compiles the evidence and makes his case against the accused.
