Mikuláš / St. Nicholas Day

Education Director's Report

Saint Nicholas (Svatý Mikuláš in Czech) is one of the most popular minor saints commemorated in the Eastern and Western Catholic churches and now traditionally associated with Christmas. His Feast Day is December 6, so in many countries that is the day when children receive gifts. Children leave a shoe or sock by their door the night of December 5, and hope it is filled with goodies when they wake up the next morning. The traditional goodies are fruits, nuts, candy and gingerbread cookies. Naughty children instead find pieces of coal, onions, or potatoes in their shoe.

Saint Nicholas (Svatý Mikuláš) lived during the 300s A.D. in the Mediterranean area. He was the archbishop of Myra in what is modern day Turkey. He lost his parents at an early age, but they left him great wealth when they died. The good bishop died on December 6, 343; thus this day is now St. Nicholas Day. After his death, the legend of his gift-giving grew. Many stories have been handed down about Nicholas, all testifying to a life spent in service to the weak, the small, and the defenseless, and his legendary habit of secret gift-giving. Saint Nicholas (Svatý Mikuláš) was always very generous to poor children. Because of this, he is known as the patron saint of children.

Traditionally, the Czech Christmas season begins on December 5, the eve of St. Nicholas' Day, or as it is known to Czechs, "Mikuláš." Great anticipation awaits the arrival of Mikuláš by the children. Mikuláš is usually pictured as a bishop clothed in white, with a gold cape, the mitre hat of a bishop, and the traditional bishop's staff. He is accompanied by an angel carrying a large book with the names of the children, and marks indicating if they have been bad or good during the year. When Mikuláš asks the children what they want for Christmas, the angel also writes it in the book. A devil also accompanies Mikuláš. He carries a switch and a chain, trying to get the children to be naughty so that they will not receive their gifts from Mikuláš.

Today, many Americans of Czechoslovak descent hang their stockings up on the evening of December 5 – Mikuláš eve. Mikuláš comes with the devil and angel during the night and fills the stockings according to the marks in the angel's book. The name of St. Nicholas has been altered by different languages, such as Santa Nickalous in Latin and Sinterklaas in Dutch. Here he has been Americanized and he is dressed very differently, plus he visits on the night of December 24/25 as Santa Claus.

Veselé Vánoce a šťastný Nový Rok
Merry Christmas and Happy New Year

Sylvia Jean Laznovsky

1937 – 2010

Sylvia was born and raised in Sokol. The Laznovsky family was very active in the American Sokol and the local unit, Sokol KHB Ennis

From the time she was in her teens, Sylvia taught gymnastics at Sokol Ennis, where for more than 50 years she touched the lives of hundreds of young people, encouraging fitness and patriotism. Although Sylvia worked in Dallas for over 30 years, she faithfully taught gymnastics in Ennis during the evenings that entire time. Many Friday evenings, she would return to Ennis after work, meet a few of the teenage girl gymnasts, then drive back to Dallas to take them to gymnastics class at Sokol Dallas, then drive them back home to Ennis.

Upon the end of the Communist era in 1990, Sylvia took the opportunity to travel to Czechoslovakia to reconnect with her Czech heritage and participate in the International Sokol Slets (Všesokolský Slet). While there, Sylvia purchased and donated several of the Czech dolls dressed in traditional kroj that are now on display in our museum.

Sylvia served for thirty-five plus years as Unit Physical Director at Sokol Ennis and as the Southern District Physical Director. She also served our local unit for many years as Membership Director and Educational Director. Sylvia also served on the American Sokol (ASO) National Executive Board as Membership Director from 2000 to 2005. She was a charter member of the Texas Czech Genealogical Society, member of the Ennis Czech Women's Sewing Circle and member of Texans of Czech Ancestry.

Na Zdar!

Educational Director, Sokol KHB Ennis
