

Helping Hands receives a $300,000 grant

Irvine, KY – Helping Hands Outreach (HHO) is thrilled to announce the awarding of a $300,000 Mercy Health Community Health Fund Grant. This funding made possible through our partnership with Mercy Health–Marcum and Wallace Hospital, will support the Update for Impact: Renovation & Mobile Resource Hub project. The project will renovate HHO's facility to create a more functional space for clients and staff and expand services to reach Individuals where they are, with the addition of a mobile resource hub van. HHO provides critical resources like food, shelter, addresses food insecurity, mental health needs, and sub- stance use disorders in our community. "This grant allows us to strengthen our mission and extend support to more individuals in need," said Debbie Rison, President and Genia McKinney, Vice President, of Helping Hands Outreach. "We are deeply grateful for this partnership and the opportunity to grow our impact." "My vision for Mercy Health–Marcum and Wallace Hospital is to transform the communities we serve," said Trena Stocker, President of Mercy Health–Marcum and Wallace Hospital. "Partnerships like the one we have with Helping Hands Outreach give us the Helping Hands receives $300,000 grant.

President Debbie Rison and Vice-President Genia McKinney of Helping Hands Outreach celebrate with friends and associates after receiving a $300,000 grant from Mercy Health. momentum to make that vision a reality Helping Hands Outreach extends heartfelt thanks to Mercy Health–Marcum and Wallace Hospital and all community partners for their continued support as we expand our services and impact. For more information, contact Helping Hands Outreach at 606-975-4822.

