Old Business

- a. Nominating Committee Report: Councilman Ed Dodd gave his final report on the Nominating Committee and the recommendation of the slate for the 2026 year to remain in place as it was in 2025 with the recommendation as follows:
 - Fort Pierce Mayor, Linda Hudson for President
 - Okeechobee Councilman David McAuley for 2nd Vice President
 - Sewalls Point Commissioner Stuart Mayor Campbell Rich for 1st Vice President
 - Kaija Mayfield for Secretary
 - St. Lucie Village Alderwoman Ingrid Van Hekken for Treasurer
 - Sebastian Councilman Ed Dodd will remain as Immediate Past President

New Business

- a. Election of Officers: At the conclusion of Councilman Dodd's report on the Nominating Committee, a motion to accept the Slate of Officers was made by Councilman John Carroll and Seconded by Mayor Robert Gibbons. There was no discussion. Motion passed unanimously.
- b. Executive Directors Contract: As a continuation of the President's Report, Mayor Hudson asked Ex. Director Christensen if she had any comments. Ms. Christensen explained some of the items in more detail regarding her request for an increase in compensation. There was some discussion on whether the increase should be incremental or all at once. Mayor Gibbons commented that the best way is to approve the agreement with the new amount not being incremental.

There was also discussion at creating a transition plan for the time when the Ex. Director retires, with items being added to the Goals and Objectives, including acquiring a phone/dedicated phone number for TCRLC, and begin putting together a document explaining the job and duties throughout the year.

Councilman Dodd made a motion to approve the new Consulting Agreement with the additional compensation and increase for office supplies and the additional Goals and Objectives, seconded by Mayor Gibbons. Motion passed unanimously.

- c. 2026 TCRLC Annual Budget: The proposed budget for the 2026 Fiscal Year was presented to the Board. Ex. Director Christensen said it did include the additional proposed phone expense and compensation for the Ex. Director's position. A motion was made by Councilman John Carroll to approve the proposed budget, seconded by Council David Pickett. Motion passed unanimously.
- d. 2026 TCRLC Calendar: Ex. Director Christensen presented the proposed calendar. It does not include a definite date for the July Okeechobee BBQ which will be discussed at an upcoming TCCLG meeting. A date for Ethics Class is still being discussed. A motion to approve the calendar with possible changes was made by Mayor Karen Ostrand and seconded by Councilman John Carroll. Motion passed unanimously.
- e. Policies and Procedures Amendment: Mayor Hudson presented the recommended policy to charge meals for anyone who RSVPs to attend and does not make an attempt to cancel within a reasonable time or show up for the event. It was determined that 48 hours was a reasonable time, with reasonable exception for illness. This will be added to the Policies and Procedures Handbook.
