

So then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live your lives in him,⁷ rooted and built up in him, strengthened in the faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness.

Pastor's Message

Praise God from whom all blessings flow.

We thank God for 133 years of worshipping, witnessing, fasting and praying at St. James AME Church in Titusville, Florida. God has never left us nor forsaken us.

We've seen God's hand at work in countless ways this past year. From experiencing physical, emotional, and spiritual healing to growth and development. God has added to St. James, new members, who are filled with the Holy Spirit and have become active in the church and community. We have continued to witness God's power and love in action through outreach.

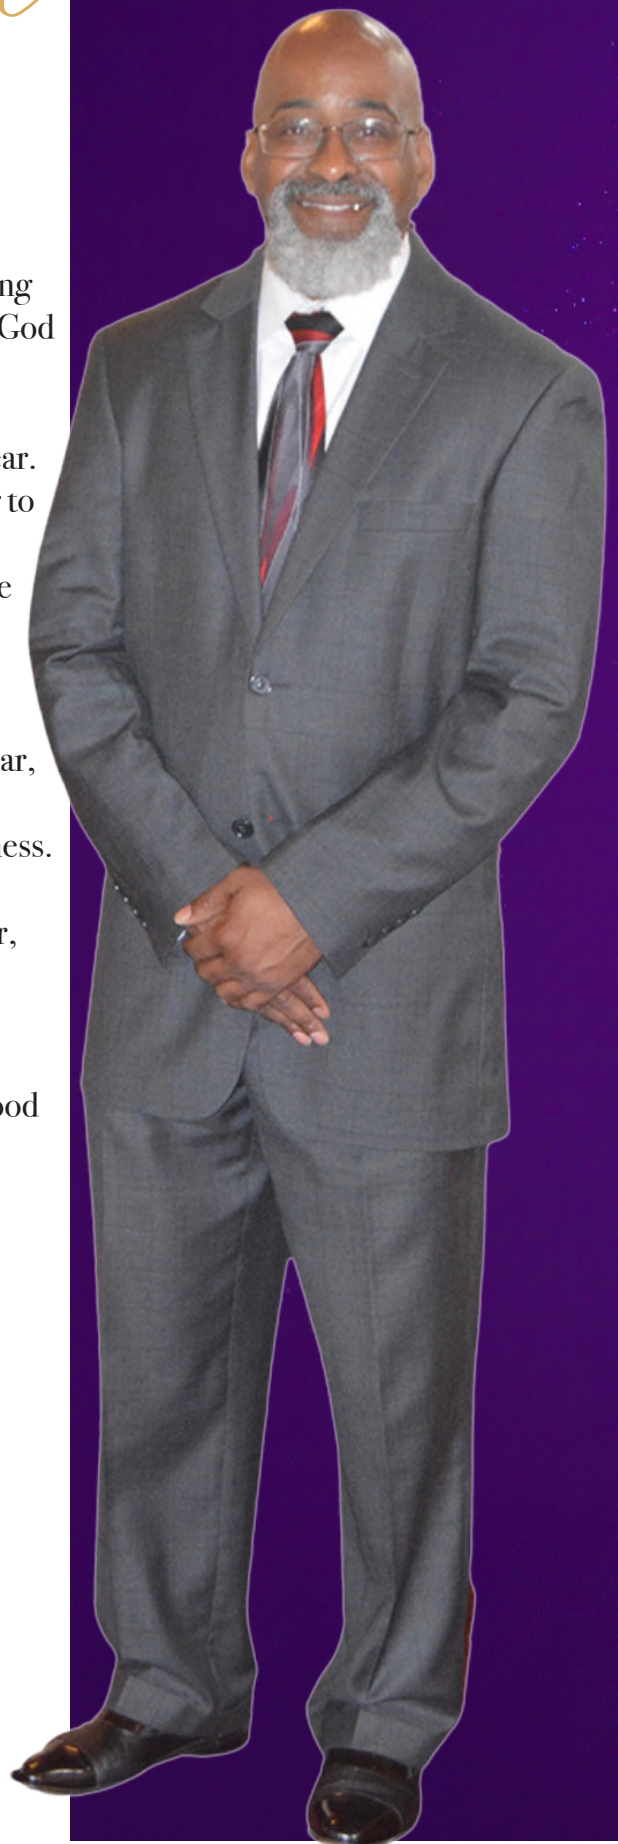

Let's take a moment to remember the blessings of the past year, both big and small. Each answered prayer, each moment of fellowship, each act of service – they all point to God's goodness.

We've overcome challenges and celebrated victories together, and through it all, our faith has been strengthened. Let's not forget the lessons learned and the growth we've experienced. May we continue to be a beacon of hope and love in our community, reaching out to those in need and sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ. Let us go forth with renewed purpose, trusting in God's grace and guidance every step of the way.

Psalm 107:1 (KJV)

O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

GUEST SPEAKER

"Dr. Zacharias continues to identify with many for his dynamic teaching of God's word and has earned a reputation as a powerful preacher and a devoted pastor. He has a true passion for being a shepherd to God's people."

REV. DR. CHRISTOPHER L ZACHARIAS

An energetic proclaimer of the gospel of Jesus Christ. His passion is God's people, their spiritual and physical well-being. Dr. Zacharias has been preaching and pastoring for over 20 years after being ordained by Bishop Marshall Strickland in 1999. Pastor Zacharias is known within his congregation, church, and community as a caring compassionate leader.

Dr. Zacharias is a native of Sewickley, Pennsylvania and the son of Fred Jr. and Helene Zacharias. His education is vast and includes an undergraduate degree in Communications from Wilkes University, a Master of Divinity degree from Pittsburgh Theological Seminary and a Doctor of Ministry degree from United Theological Seminary, in Ohio. He also continued his education by obtaining certificates in Coaching, Teaching and Community Development.

As an economical leader, Pastor Zacharias delights in working and partnering with diverse groups of people on social and economic justice issues. He is recognized as being one who brings others together to work on common causes for Christ and God's people. He currently serves as the Vice President for the D.C. Mayor's Interfaith Council, executive board member of Metro Interfaith Council in D.C., board member of the Leadership Council of Healthy Churches, along with multiple community organizations. Pastor Zacharias has served as the Third Vice President of the NAACP - San Francisco. He served on the Board of Directors for the Buchanan YMCA of San Francisco, executive boards for Unity – Bridging the Gap between African Americans and Jews, Faith in Action and the Interfaith Council in San Francisco and Washington, DC.

Dr. Zacharias is known for leaving a legacy of effective ministry endeavors and accomplishments at each church he serves. He has served at multiple Zion Churches, St. Paul AME Zion Church-Coraopolis, PA, St. Mark A.M.E. Zion Church-Wilkinsburg, PA, Metropolitan A.M.E. Zion Church-Ridgewood, NJ, Rock Hill A.M.E. Zion Church-Indian Trail, NC, Mount Pisgah A.M.E. Zion Church-Rockingham, NC, First Church A.M.E. Zion Church-San Francisco, CA. He currently serves as Pastor of John Wesley A.M.E. Zion Church-Washington, D.C.

Dr. Zacharias is a published author of "Spiritual Renewal for an Abundant Life" a 40-day devotion for the Lenten season. Additionally, he has numerous published articles, including "Authentic Care toward God's People" in the book, "United Against Racism-Churches for Change". Dr. Zacharias continues to identify with many for his dynamic teaching of God's word and has earned a reputation as a powerful preacher and a devoted pastor. He has a true passion for being a shepherd to God's people. His nurturing and giving spirit positively touches the lives of those who sit under his leadership as he boldly seeks to fulfill the plan and purpose of Almighty God. Among his many titles, Dr. Zacharias is a father, and he is blessed to be married to his lovely wife and soulmate, Lady Kim.

Our History

133 Years Fulfilling the Mission

This is a historical overview of the growth and development of the African Methodist Episcopal Church at Titusville, Florida. The intent here is to summarize the significant events of our church from its beginning to the present time.

I. Birth of the African Methodist Episcopal (AME) Church

The African Methodist Church is unique in that it is the first religious body in the Western world that had its origin over sociological, rather than theological, differences. In November 1787, Richard Allen, Daniel Coker, and James Champion left St. George's Methodist Episcopal Church and formed the Free African Society. Out of the Free African Society, the African Methodist Episcopal Church was conceived.

II. Birth of The Florida Conference (11th Episcopal District) of the AME Church

The Florida Conference (11th Episcopal District) of the African Methodist Episcopal Church was organized in June 1867, under the leadership of Bishop A. W. Wayman, at Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church, Tallahassee, Florida.

III. Historical Recap of St. James African Methodist Episcopal Church in Titusville, Florida

Before the St. James church structure was built, blacks in Titusville held church at a 7.5-acre campground in the black community.

Rev. C.H. Boger Era - The Early Years (1892 - 1927)

Family members of God-fearing Brevard County African American businessmen, government workers, and citrus growers, under the leadership of Rev. C.H. Boger and Presiding Elder I. J. Harris, organized & built an African Methodist Episcopal church in Titusville, Florida, and dedicated it "Saint James".

Rev. C.H. Hobson Era (1927 - 1940)

Rev. C.H. Hobson oversaw the first remodeling of the church in 1927, which also included the bell and tower being moved from the east end of the church (to the west end of the church).

Rev. Josh W. Burno Era (1940 - 1952)

- During the early 1940s, Rev. Josh W. Burno worked with Harry T. Moore (who was murdered on Christmas night in 1951) in establishing the NAACP in the north Brevard County area in the fight for black people's right to vote in Florida's Primary Elections.
- In January 1952, Rev. Burno eulogized his friend, Harry T. Moore, who was murdered on Christmas night in 1951, and continued his work in the church and community afterward.

Notes: Beginning in the early fifties, the city of Titusville experienced a noticeable increase in population due to employment in the creation of America's Spaceport.

Rev. Stevenson Era (1952 - 1958)

Rev. J.W. Orr Era (1958 - 1960)

- Rev. Orr led the building of a new edifice at the present St. James AME Church site using seed money from the sale of a 7.5-acre campground site owned by the church.

Rev. Timothy P. King Era (1960 - 1962)

- Rev. Timothy P. King purchased land to move the original (wooden) parsonage (in 1961) from next to the church (on Dummt Ave) to Wager St, thereby providing adequate space for the construction of a planned new church.
- The King family was the first to live in the parsonage at that location.

Rev. Willie S. Spells Era (1962 - 1966)

- In 1962, Rev. Spells used his carpentry skills to modify the parsonage to accommodate the needs of his family.
- In 1963, Rev. Spells, acting as the contractor/builder, led the construction of the modern St. James church sanctuary, which was completed/dedicated in 1964.
- Rev. Spells' wife, Sis. Hattie Spells and others, such as Sis. Mary Lee Harvey and Sis. Richard Mae Fayson led the St. James Missionary Society to new heights in the District.
- In 1966, the new sanctuary mortgage was paid in full. And a copy of the church mortgage was burned in a well-attended ceremony that included the AME Bishop.

Rev. C. D Dixon Era (1966 - 1971)

- Rev. C. D Dixon led the construction of the present-day St. James brick parsonage (which was built south of the original wooden church parsonage) on Wager Avenue.
The original wooden church parsonage was subsequently torn down.
- In 1971, the church purchased two lots on Wager Street adjoining the parsonage.

Rev. Walter S. White Era (1971 - 1972)

- The Normans and Hattie Gilbert's home, located across the street from the church, was purchased to serve as an annex for the church.

Rev. Jerome L. Denmark Era (1972 - 1976)

- The church annex was developed further, and a concession area in the rear southeast of the sanctuary was converted into the church office during the mid-1970s.
- The first church male usher board (attired in matching suits) was originated.

Rev. Jessie Haywood Era (1976 - 1979)

Rev. Dr. Edoras Page Era (1979 - 1983)

- The front entrance of the church was beautified by adding A canopy, steps, and wrought iron railings. Lawson Construction performed the front entrance beautification.
- The church pews were upholstered, and the pulpit area was expanded to accommodate the musical instruments.
- The James Hawkins Canaveral Avenue property was purchased to add church parking.

In the seventies & eighties, the Space Shuttle program brought in quite a few people working in high-paying jobs. The overall economic situation in Brevard County improved considerably.

Rev. D. Luther Bell Era #1 (1983 - 1989)

- Church indebtedness was consolidated, and the James Hawkins property was purchased and converted into a cement parking lot.
- Ethel Brooks' home site, located next door to the church, was purchased, and a van was purchased for the transportation ministry.
- Mrs. Richard Mae Fayson's long-held dream to install a pictorial representation of the founding of the AME Church in dedication to the memory of St. James builder Rev. Willie E. Spells came to fruition through raised funds, which were used to remove the two existing stained-glass windows and create one large new stained-glass window.

Rev George Young Era (1989 - 1990)

THE CONSTRUCTION OF A FELLOWSHIP HALL

Rev. Elvin J. Parker Era (1990 - 1995)

- Rev. Elvin J. Parker planted the vision of constructing a church fellowship hall in the minds of the membership and led the purchase of the Preston Thomas and Roderick Harris properties located on the Westside of Dummitt Avenue for church expansion.
- Major parsonage renovations were completed during Rev Parker's tenure.

Rev. D. Luther Bell Era #2 (1995 - 2006)

The Orlando, Florida, Conference of 1994 made a historical act by assigning the Rev. D. Luther as pastor of St. James AME Church for a second time.

- Rev. Bell led the construction of the Fellowship Hall, with the motto "Mission Possible". Increased membership giving and creative private financing, facilitated by Nehemiah Consulting Group project funding, were all key to funding the half-million-dollar project.
- Hosea Williams, the Trustee Board Chairman Pro-Tem, led fundraising to purchase additional property needed to build the Fellowship Hall.
- The general contractor, Johnny Archer Construction Company of Palm Bay, Florida, started construction in December 1999 and completed construction in September 2000.
- The Pulpit Aid Board, led by Dr. George L. Fayson, Sr., refurbished the church annex and installed blinds and draperies.

INTRODUCTION TO AN ERA OF CHANGE

Rev. Glenn B. Dames, Jr. Era (2006 - 2016)

Rev. Glenn Dames, Jr.'s 10-year pastorship was the longest continuous St. James AME Church appointment.

- Church attendance and membership increased -including many new youth and young adults members' involved in Christian training and social outlets such as: the Chastity Program and Ceremony which included over eighty (80) boys and girls; Tutorial and computer programs, Social dances, with the motto; "All clean, all fun all to the glory"; Brother to Brother mentoring; Praise Dancing; Youth Ride-Out; Back to school bash; and Sons of Thunder, to name a few.
- Professional inspirational musicians were hired and (1) created the 'theme song - Welcome to St. James' and (2) organized well-attended St. James Christmas Cantatas.
- The sanctuary was remodeled, including the replacement of the chancel rail; new carpeting & church pews; and a new linked church/ Fellowship Hall video system.
- Rev. Dames served as president of the local branch of the N.A.A.C.P; was as a member of the Parks & Recreation Board, established Souls to the Polls for early black voting, was the Go-to' person for addressing community racial issues, and created the (elegant) Annual Onyx Awards Program to recognize and honor community members in several categories.

Note: The loss of jobs after the Space Shuttle Program ended in 2011 affected St. James AME Church.

Rev. A.J. Davis Era (2016 - 2022)

- Three significant events during this era were: (1) the purchase of a new church van and (2) the $78,000.00 church roof replacement campaign led by two stewards -Sis. Juanita Houston & Bro. Art Edwards (3) St. James remained #2 in the Daytona Beach District.

Note: Following the onset of the Global COVID-19 Pandemic in March 2020, Face-to-face church services were discontinued for approximately 2 years, and Church services and church school were held via Zoom.

Dr. Rev Roy Jones, Jr. Era (2022 - Present)

- Rev. Jones (1) brought a wealth of 'religious leadership experience' and history to St. James (2) created a 'Vision' of Spiritual Growth, and (3) placed focus on congregation restoration, Effective Church Leadership, and Fiscal Responsibility. His media use is very effective in reaching a large audience of St. James members and other Christians across multiple states. He creates YouTube videos that are inspirational and effective biblical teaching tools. Daily early morning scriptural learning and prayer sessions are well attended and provide structured devotional biblical teaching.
- From 2022 to 2025, church membership and Sunday attendance have increased. Emphasis has been placed on financial management and reducing church indebtedness through increased giving, fundraising, and the sale of unused/unneeded property. Capable and involved church officers have effectively shared in church leadership.
- Rev. Jones is 'very active' in terms of caring for his membership and others in the community, maintaining awareness of individual situations, and taking actions to assist when appropriate. His visits to check on the sick and shut-ins are uplifting and appreciated.
- Significant 2022-2025 achievements include major work at the St. James parsonage, including facility renovation and roof replacement; drain line replacement (2), six air conditioner units replaced (in the sanctuary and fellowship hall, and fully paid off).

Congratulations to St. James AME Church on 133 years of faithful service, unwavering ministry, and a powerful impact in the community.
What a Blessing and a Legacy!

133rd Anniversary Congratulations to St. James AME Church

I am the daughter of Iris Highsmith and the late Milton E. Highsmith, and I am a proud product of Saint James AME Church. I credit my foundation of faith, service, and community to the village and family that raised me right here in Titusville, Florida.

Outside of work, I am the founder of TallFit, a clothing brand with a mission to help tall women stand tall in style and confidence. Through TallFit, I champion inclusivity and body positivity by designing stylish, well-fitting apparel made specially for tall women.

Jennifer Highsmith

I currently serve as Vice President of Executive Communications at Synchrony, partnering directly with CEO Brian Doubles to shape executive messaging, thought leadership, and storytelling for one of the nation's leading financial services companies. Before Synchrony, I led the executive communications team at UPS, supporting CEO Carol Tomé and connecting UPS leadership with 500,000 employees worldwide.

In the nonprofit space, I have worked at various organizations, including Points of Light – the world's largest organization focused on volunteer service and civic engagement, founded by President George H. W. Bush. There, I helped corporations build corporate social responsibility (CSR) programs with a focus on volunteerism, supported White House volunteer initiatives like the President's Volunteer Service Award, and had the honor of working alongside and meeting leaders, including President Jimmy Carter and First Lady Michelle Obama.

I currently live in Atlanta, Georgia, where I am a member of Destiny World Church in Austell, Georgia, under the leadership of Pastor Wilbur T. Purvis III. I also serve faithfully as the armor bearer for First Lady Kim Purvis.

Through it all, I use the power of words, storytelling, and faith to uplift others and remind them they are never walking alone. I remain forever grateful to my family and members of St. James AME for planting the seeds of faith that guide my steps today.

CONTINUES TO DO THROUGH US.

FROM THE STEWARD BOARD

MOTHER HELEN HAYES

We are delighted to recognize the exceptional life and contributions of Mother Helen Hayes, a beacon of dedication and excellence. A Valedictorian at Gibson High School and a proud graduate of Florida A&M University in 1950. Mother Hayes dedicated 47 years to education, earning the prestigious title of Teacher of the Year in 1983. Her unwavering commitment to shaping young minds and living a faith-driven life continues to inspire us all.

Mother Hayes served as a Trustee at St. James AME Church and led the Helen Hayes Choir for many years, exemplifying her devotion as a great servant of the Lord. Her leadership and commitment to our church community have been invaluable, leaving a lasting legacy of faith and service.

Congratulations St. James AME Church as we honor and celebrate 133 years of faith, community, and service.

Fayson Family

Though you all are no longer with us, your love is still.
You taught us strength, kindness, and the meaning of family.

We carry your memory in our hearts—today and always.
Forever missed, forever loved.

With Love, Rev. V.C Fayson & Dr. George L. Fayson

Mamie E. Watson

In loving Memory of Mamie Watson

A life well-lived, a heart well-loved. Today, we honor the legacy of Mamie Watson, a woman of quiet strength, enduring grace, and unwavering love. Her wisdom was deep, her kindness boundless, and her presence a source of comfort to all who knew her. She stood as a pillar in her family and community — steady, dignified, and full of faith. Her hands, always busy in care for others, leave behind a legacy of compassion that will echo through generations. Though she has left this world, her spirit lives on in the stories she shared, the values she instilled, and the love she gave so freely.

We celebrate her life with gratitude and carry her memory with pride.

Rest in eternal peace, Mamie. You will never be forgotten.

With Love, 5 Generations

THE HISTORY OF AFRICAN AMERICANS AT THE SPACEPORT WILL SOON BE TOLD

"African Americans at America's Spaceport"

OUR HISTORY – WRITTEN BY US

An original 'contextualized publication' compiled by Art Edwards - a 45-year+ KSC Veteran

A collection of facts and stories about KSC Black Pioneers/ Trailblazers/High Achievers AND ALSO many other KSC Blacks who contributed to NASA's Success by simply doing their jobs

From the hiring of the first NASA/KSC Black Professional in 1963 until present day 2025, African Americans at the Spaceport have not been just 'window dressing' or 'EEO numbers' as some will allege. It is our collective responsibility to tell our own stories and to not let anyone distort, misrepresent or undermine our achievements at the Spaceport or anywhere else

A FEW EXAMPLES OF BLACK PIONEERS/HIGH ACHIEVERS AT AMERICA'S SPACEPORT

Herb Peete – One of NASA's 1st Black Engineers and a key Design Engineer

Remer Prince - NASA's first 'Computer GURU' and NASA's 1st Black Engineering Supervisor

Jim Jennings - 1st NASA/KSC Black Deputy Director

Art Edwards – 1st Black Rockwell Apollo Engineer

Jim Wilder – 1st Black Rockwell Apollo CSM Engineer

Nap Carroll – NASA's first and only Black CFO

Katherine Clinton – 1st Black NASA/KSC Female Engineer

Harold Wilson – First and only Black KSC Employment Manager (with Lockheed)

In Loving Memory of

A Legacy of Love, Strength, and Faith

Mr. Frank Fayson & Mrs. Richard Mae Fayson

Today, we pause to honor the beautiful lives of Mr. Frank Fayson and Mrs. Richard Mae Fayson - two extraordinary souls whose love, faith, and strength shaped generations.

Mr. Fayson, with his quiet wisdom and enduring strength, was a man of integrity and dignity. His warmth could be felt in every smile, and his devotion to family and community was unwavering. He stood tall as a pillar of wisdom and guidance - always steady, always kind.

Mrs. Fayson, with her gentle spirit and nurturing heart, was the heart of her home. Her hands built a legacy of love, her words comforted those in need, and her life was a reflection of grace and resilience. She carried herself with elegance and strength lifting others with her presence.

Together, they shared a bond that was a testament to enduring love - a partnership rooted in faith, family, and compassion. Their lives touched countless hearts, and their legacy will live on in the stories told, the traditions kept, and the love passed down through generations. We are forever grateful for their lives, their love, and their light. Though they may rest from their labors, their memory will forever live on in the hearts of those they loved.

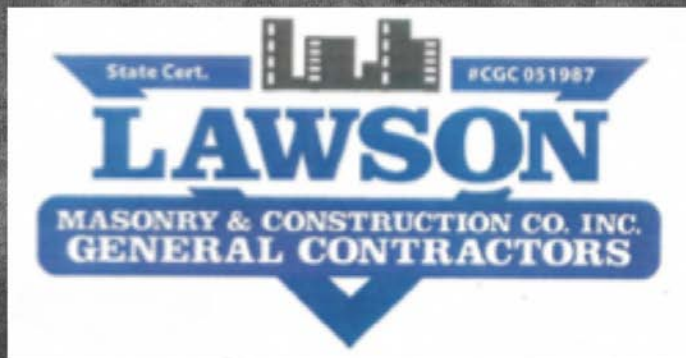

Well done, good and faithful servants" - Matthew 25:23

ANNIVERSARY

ST JAMES AME FAMILY

For 133 years, St. James AME Church has been more than a building—it's been a family, a safe place to grow in faith, and a light in the Titusville community.

We thank God for every pastor, member, and friend who has poured into this ministry over the years.

Here's to our beautiful past, our exciting present, and the amazing things God has in store for our future.

With love,

Your 133rd Anniversary Planning Committee

In Loving Memory of My Beloved Parents

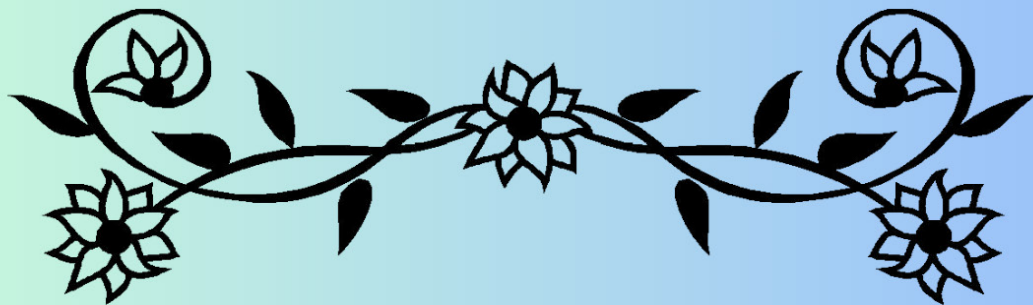

To the world, you were just two beautiful souls frozen in a timeless photograph. But to me, you were everything— my foundation, my inspiration, and my greatest blessings. Mama, your grace, warmth, and strength guided our family with unwavering love. You taught me the value of kindness and dignity, always carrying yourself with elegance and quiet power. Daddy, your wisdom, charm, and quiet confidence shaped my world. You wore your suit with pride, but it was the strength of your character that truly made you a gentleman. Together, you showed me what true love looked like. In your eyes, I saw devotion. In your smiles, I felt peace. And in your footsteps, I learned how to walk with purpose and pride. Though you are no longer here with me in the physical sense, your legacy lives on in every heartbeat of this family, in every value you passed down, and in the love that still surrounds us. I miss you deeply—but I carry you always.

With love eternal, Your Daughter- Carolyn Y. Fayson
