PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

by Devota Swenson
President, Lone Star Belgian Tervuren Club

Happy Summer in Central Texas.

It was great seeing everyone at the Dallas dog shows. It is always nice to have a good turnout in the ring. Alo and I have been dock diving this season and are looking forward to the nationals in Orlando this December. He and I are setting in to the new house quite nicely; the backyard is great and walking in the neighborhood is a lot easier at the new house.

I have noticed a lot of group placements on Facebook and a couple of Best in Shows from some of our Belgian friends since the Belgian National. I know a lot of judges came in for judges' education and I think it is working. I have heard that it was a wonderful opportunity for them to see the dogs in action and in the rings. I am hopeful that our new crop of puppies that are starting to show will have an even better chance to win groups and placements and the conformation judges are sharing their knowledge of the breed.

SPINNING THE WHEEL by Pat Thomas

Those of you who know me know that I'm not much of a gambler. Gerard will buy a lottery ticket here and there but I struggle to shell out money for nothing. So it may surprise you to know that despite that fact that Nikki had started blowing coat, I took the risk and entered her in the Texarkana Kennel Club show in June. She needed one more point and I was willing to spin the wheel in hopes of an entry.

Breed counts came out and they were Saturday 0-2-0-0 and Sunday nada. Yes, I did realize that chances were not good for getting her last point there. But I dug deep to find my inner optimist and hit the road to Texarkana. Well, you know how the story ends and after waiting an hour to take her win pic, Nikki and I headed out. First stop, a nearby park for a nice long walk and second stop, McDonald's for a hamburger for the new champion.

Now we can spend our free weekends doing fun things like agility and nosework!

 those extra letters are nosework titles in AKC, NACSW, and UKC*

New Business - 2019 Supported Show

It was voted to hold a supported show on Sunday, July 7, 2019 at the Texas Kennel Club Show. Tiffany Holley made the motion and was seconded by Pat Thomas. Deb Lyons said that we need to have someone else do trophies. Cynthia will check with her pet-sitter who might be able to take that on.

Next Meeting

The next meeting will be held following Belgian Tervuren judging at the Bell County Kennel Club show on Saturday 10/20/2018 in Belton, TX.

Adjournment

The meeting adjourned at 1:22 pm.

Braggs and Discussion

- Cynthia mentioned that since there is no host hotel for the 2019 Terv National, folks might want to look into renting a house in town. She and Jeff found a nice one through VRBO.com.

- Devota has moved into a new house further south of downtown Austin.

- Devota bragged on Alo. She hadn't realized he was closing in on a new title, but he has now achieved the Dock Senior Excellent (DSX) title, with a huge bright ribbon to go with it.

- Devota suggested perhaps having a Terv Fun Day somewhere where the Tervs could try Dock Diving - perhaps Air Dogs in Midlothian. She will check into it.

- Pat bragged that Nikki finished her Championship in Texarkana.

- Tiffany bragged on her Malinois Hades who went Best of Breed today in an entry of 14 for his first point towards his Grand Championship.

- Glenda bragged on her youngster Ready who earned his first point today by going Best of Winners.

- Cynthia bragged on Shirley Stowe, but that was entertaining enough for a story - to be found elsewhere in Trails.

A GHOSTLY TRIBUTE TO SHIRLEY STOWE!

By Cynthia Parker

Shirley and Bob had invited us to visit them again this year at their Ruidoso, NM home. Not long after I received an invitation to my Aunt's 80th birthday party in Ruidoso. I called Shirley and she very graciously invited us to come visit the same weekend as the birthday party even though Bob could not get off work. We flew into Roswell, NM and made the lovely drive over to their house. We did not miss any dogs as Shirley has many including her newest member, a 4 month old show Pekingese, Clifford.

While there Shirley told us about a lovely resort in Cloudcroft, NM, The Lodge Resort and Spa, that had a wonderful restaurant. Once I saw they had cherries jubilee on the menu I was hooked. We drove to Cloudcroft, about an hour away. The trip took us through the Mescalero Reservation. Quite an interesting view of reservation culture. Horses roam freely around the 2 lane road. Made quite the slow drive home in the dark.

The resort was originally built by a railroad in search of timber in 1899. The old trestle can still be seen. The rich and famous used to travel to the Inn to get away from the heat of the south. It sits 9,000 feet above sea level. Nowadays it is known for the golfing, spa, shopping at a handful of stores and the restaurant called Rebecca

We did some shopping and noticed a story written on the wall. There was a picture of a young girl named Rebecca who is said to haunt the hallways. No one knew where she came from but she was a chamber maid at the resort. She had striking blue eyes and red hair. In the 1930's she fell in love with a lumberjack. He was gone most of the time. She started seeing someone else during one of his absences. When he returned he became enraged when he found her with another man. He took her out in the woods and killed her, dismembering her body. She haunts The Lodge and has been seen in hallways, opening and closing doors, igniting fires in the fire place and moving ashtrays in the bar.

So at the restaurant we were seated at a front table overlooking the entrance. On the table was an electric candle which was off when we were seated. We placed drink orders and Shirley grabbed the candle and turned it on. We started looking at the menus. A bit later Shirley noticed it was off again, she grabbed the candle and turned it back on. This happened a couple more times. When the waiter brought our food Shirley was turning the candle on again and the waiter told us that for some reason these candles don't stay lit at this table. A gentleman before us asked to get a new candle and the same thing happened. The amount of time for the candle to go off varied.

After the waiter told us that, Shirley grabbed the candle again and turned it on and it immediately went out. I said to Shirley "You know Rebecca is sitting in the 4th seat right there and you are making her mad" We all laughed and we didn't turn on the candle again.

We made the slow trip back and once we reached Shirley's house our talk went to ghosts. I mentioned I had a ghost app on my phone, Ghost Hunter M2. Shirley downloaded it and she turned it on She put on the dashboard which does a scan of several things: sensor sweep, audio analyzer, EMF Detector, you get the idea. Within a few seconds we heard a man's voice say, "Shirl".

We all three stopped and said, "Did it just speak" Shirley said "Yes, and it sounded just like my birth Father. He called me Shirl." So we started chatting away and it said something else, but we were talking so loudly and it was so fast we couldn't make it out. Then again it said something unintelligible, we then sat still and quiet. After we discussed turning off the app that was starting to creep us out, we heard the same voice say, "Goodbye." This all happened in a span of about 10 minutes.

We just sat there, then started talking all at once. We were up at least an hour more playing with the Ghost Hunter M2 app, but we heard no other words. The only place I have used this app is in my den and office, and I have not ever heard it say anything. Then once we got back I used it in my bedroom and it said in a different voice "Nervous." It hasn't said anything since.

The next day we were to all go to breakfast then Shirley was going to spend the night and drive back Monday morning. But after that she said she would stay behind, clean up and drive home that afternoon.

Big thanks to Shirley for her hospitality and giving us a fun ghost story.
