 Rededication Litany
Led by Pastor Leroy Mashore, Jr.

Leader: Today we gather in gratitude for the legacy of Reverend Dr. George Washington King, whose leadership revived, strengthened, and reunited this church.

People: We rededicate this house to the glory of God and the service of His people.

Leader: For the faith of those 35 members who rebuilt this ministry with courage, hope, and determination.

People: We rededicate this house to the glory of God and the service of His people.

Leader: For every prayer prayed, every hymn sung, every soul uplifted, and every life transformed within these walls.

People: We rededicate this house to the glory of God and the service of His people.

Leader: For the fellowship shared in the G. W. King Memorial Center—meals, celebrations, learning, unity, and love.

People: We rededicate this house to the glory of God and the service of His people.

Leader: For the ministries that continue to flourish, the memories that continue to inspire, and the future God is preparing for Union Baptist Church.

People: We rededicate this house to the glory of God and the service of His people.

Leader: As we honor 50 years of service, we commit ourselves anew to Christ's mission and to the work of His kingdom.

People: We rededicate this house to the glory of God and the service of His people.

Leader: To God be the glory—yesterday, today, and forevermore.

People: Amen.
