

Seeking to Please

On this bright snow

Lofted about by currents never seen the pattern is stamped

Or is revealed

That pleases the heart with beauty and the mind with symmetry

On this swift message

Carried by some unknown pulse

The meaning is encoded or is inhered

In the meeting of the soul with the beating heart

On these frail words

Conveyed by metrics misunderstood my hope is written

Or hides itself

The treasure of the mind seeking to please
