OUTSTANDING CITIZEN AWARD

DCN OTUONUNYO E. KENNETH JP

Kenneth Edafefeye Otuonunyo JP, is a private businessman with well over two decades of providing varying degree of services to the oil and gas sector as well as to the general public. Kenneth Otuonunyo as a merchant also oversee the growth of covenant electrical and electronics stores a private trading arm of his business empire that provide quality service delivery to homes and industries around with specific goals of meeting our ever growing electrical/electronic demands.

Shortly after graduating from university of Benin in 1994 he join Jos Otuonuyo Nigeria ltd, a family company as a project supervisor and grew to become business development director in 2002. With knowledge gathered from Jos Otuonuyo Nigeria ltd, he entered into partnership with Winners Nigeria ltd as director operations, a position he held for four years delivering quality pipelines construction and sectional repairs for Shell Petroleum Development Company (SPDC).

With the achievements recorded in both Jos Otuonunyo Nig ltd and Winners Nigeria ltd, another thriving oil and gas company named Anchikif Nigeria ltd approached and hired the services of Kenneth Otuonunyo as a consultant to manage pipelines callout contract in Seplat Energy PLC. This fruitful relationship as a consultant to Anchikif lasted for about five years with so many projects successfully completed.

In all of these Kenneth Otuonunyo have this passion to be a major player in the oil and gas industry, this dream became a reality in the midst of the year 2018 when KENYO NIGERIA ENTERPRISES LIMITED (KNEL) was incorporated by the help of the almighty God. KNEL as a product of grace have been enjoying speed as a result of the wealth of experience gathered over two decades of working, under studying and consulting for other companies.

KNEL within the first two years had done major projects that paved way for it to be registered in the Nigeria petroleum exchange NIPEX, and have been enjoying patronage.

SERVICE TO HUMANITY, apart from being a philanthropist, Kenneth's love for peace and security made him to venture into the Police community relations community in the year 2010, within seven months of joining this selfless committee, like a goldfish he was sported out of the crowd and coopted into the executive arm of the "A" Division PCRC as the assistant financial secretary and later elected the chairman of PCRC 'A' Division Ughelli, while serving in that capacity as a Divisional chairman, he was elevated to vice chairman of Ughelli Area Command.

In the year 2019, he was again enabled by grace soaring into the apex decision making organ, the national executive council (NEC) of the Police Committee Relations Committee as the National Vice Chairman South South. This new position bequeathed enormous responsibility of having to oversee the six South South states, namely Edo, Delta, Bayelsa, Rivers, Akwa Ibom and Cross River as well as having to adequately coordinate the activities of PCRC in relation to police affairs in the three zonal commands namely Zone 5 with head quarter in Benin City, Zone 6 with head quarter in Calabar and Zone 16 with head quarter in Bayelsa.

It is worthy of mention that within the space of about three years of assumption of office as the national vice chairman, he have been able to develop a working synergy that have harmonized the once distorted and volatile PCRC formations that existed before his emergence as the National Vice Chairman of PCRC in the South South. Today the PCRC is doing amazingly well. All the formations have credible and elected executives willingly driving the aims and objectives of PCRC towards reducing to its barest minimum the effects of crime and criminality in our society by assisting the police in credible information gathering as well as assisting in cash and kind within the reach of the PCRC family.

Awards. Kenneth Otuonunyo have amongst others the following awards:

1. The Nigeria Police Community Relations Committee (PCRC) "B" Division Agbarha-Otor presented Award of excellence, Peace and Security in February, 2021
2. The Nigeria Police Community Relations Committee (PCRC) Ughelli Area Command presented Award of peace and security in 29th September, 2020
3. The Nigeria Police Community Relations Committee (PCRC) Sapele Area Command presented Award of excellence in peace, security and strategic positioning of PCRC affairs in the command

“ He has transformed the clinic from an organisation troubled by high profile technical operational challenges into a highly effective body with 96% of patients satisfied with the services his staff provide. There is a good relationship between staff and patients enhancing good medical services.

“He found that the charity was wasting over a £1m a year on time-consuming inefficient administration and had no effective PR. He altered procedures, cut staff and adopted a 'can do' approach by putting the people the organisation was supposed to be helping at the top of his priority list, rather than at the bottom.”

He has always put humanity first in all that he does. He render free medical services for patients who couldn't afford the bills and also treat for free patients within his vicinity and has done free medical outreach to neighbouring town.
