PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE...By Susan Baas

Our committee for our annual Spring Tea has all the works in order. The event will be at the new Veteran's Hall on Saturday May 4. Information has been sent to all members. So far, our ticket sales have been slow. The event will not be as large as in the past. It's not too late to purchase tickets. Contact Judy Bruenn or Sandy Panattoni for tickets and table seating. Our hostesses are planning spectacular table decoration and settings. Cindy Reading has been working hard to assemble raffle baskets for the fundraiser. It's not too late to get your basket items to her. Let's all make this as successful as the past Tea events. This is our largest fundraiser.

Thanks to Sharon Quintana and Sue Dorman for arranging a nice Mexican luncheon at La Contenta. As usual it was great. Our speakers were the hopeful recipients of our yearly donations. They each presented their contributions to the community. We will send out information regarding your votes in the near future. Enjoy the spring and lovey weather. Your President, Susan

VICE PRESIDENT...MaryAnn Evans

Our speakers this month were representatives from the 3 nonprofits who were nominated to receive our annual donations. Represented were Horse Speak, Quilts of Honor, and Habitat for Humanity (see pictures below by Sue Dorman.) Each presentation was excellent, not a dry eye in the house. Going to be difficult to choose. Sue Dorman is the chair to distribute and collect the ballots. She will send them out via the newsletter distribution lists. So watch for your ballot. The deadline will be May 28th, our monthly luncheon. If you forget Sue will have ballots available at the luncheon. Your vote is very important so please complete your ballot.

Our April tea was held at Mary Anne Melson's home. We had 10 members attend and one guest. We enjoyed some very tasty food, tea and great companionship. Mary Anne had a beautiful Easter theme with a lot of bunnies around. Everyone had a great time. We will not have our usual monthly tea as May is our fundraising Spring Tea event. We don't have any hostess yet for June, so please check later or contact me with questions and if you are interested in joining us (209) 786-7713 or threedogfright1@caltel.com. I will have more info later.
