Hi Maher Rusho,

Please configure your Coursera account to your Master of Science in Data Science Program below. If you don't have an account yet, you will be prompted to create one.

Configure My Coursera Account

This account configuration invitation will expire on January 1, 2026.

Once you're signed in on Coursera, please begin CU Boulder MS-DS Student Onboarding Course on the Master of Science in Data Science Home Page. You must complete CU Boulder MS-DS Student Onboarding Course before your Master of Science in Data Science courses begin.

If you'd like to change the email address used for your existing Coursera account, follow the instructions here. Please note that once you have enrolled in a program, you should not delete your learner account to comply with university guidelines. For any other questions, please visit the Coursera Learner Help Center or contact msds-support@colorado.edu.

Happy Learning!
