

Alice M Swanson

★ LETTERS ★

My Dearest Friend,

My name is Alice M. Swanson and I'm excited to share my latest adventure with you.

Being the owner of the beautiful Palms and Pearls Tearoom in my hometown of Sunset Bayou, Florida leads me on many adventures and gives me lots of fun stories to share with my friends and family. There are so many fun stories and interactions that I decided I wanted to share them with even more friends. We may currently be strangers but I bet we can change that. After all, I believe that strangers are friends we haven't met yet.

Over the past several years, I have found so much joy in writing, especially letters, and sending them to readers the "old fashioned" way, through traditional snail mail. That's why I created my new, uplifting and inspiring project, The Alice M Swanson Letters.

Through this monthly letter adventure, I regale my friends with stories of the tearoom, my community, and my own life. From day-to-day happenings in our tearoom and gift shop with our trusty team, Mrs. Cromwell and Lucy, to colorful tearoom guests, and happenings from around Sunset Bayou, there's always some adventure, and some gossip to be shared.

In addition to each letter, I love sending you a special tea that I have curated for you to sip while you read the latest letter. This tea sample includes 2 pyramid sachets, so steeping the tea is simple.

I would love for you to become one of my friends and share in this year-long adventure with me.

Please check out my project at www.AliceMSwanson.com or check with my friends at The White Heron Tea & Gifts. They will be happy to share more about my letters with you.

Until we meet again, I wish you all the best. And remember, life is about the journey, not the destination, so make your journey an exciting one.

Wishing you a "Beau-tea-ful" Day,

Alice
