Ebony Magazine has a history of celebrating influential African Americans.

As usual, the magazine's annual 'Power 100' list of standout figures in the Black community does not disappoint. Fourteen categories from “Cultural Influencers” to “Community Crusaders,” list dynamite game changers who make it impossible to imagine 2014 without. Lupita Nyong'o, Ta-Nehisi Coates, Laverne Cox, Levar Burton, and Chimamanda Ngozi Adiche are just a few of the names included on Ebony's knockout list.

This year's honorees will be celebrated at Ebony's Power 100 Gala on Wednesday in Los Angeles, including music legend Quincy Jones, who is set to receive Ebony's 2014 Achievement Award.

Marc Lamont Hill, a 2014 honoree, told HuffPost how he felt to have made the cut.

"I'm so honored to be listed among so many important and influential people.
