

Education Partnerships
Onsite programs • Workforce solutions
Partnership benefits

Benedictine University's
National Moser Center

August 27, 2015

10 THINGS TO DO

Tour jazz clubs via bus, see a comedy super group, eat and drink at a new fest

By HANK SARTIN |

 SHARE  Facebook 13  Twitter  LinkedIn 0  Google +

Whether it's a gala event, a once-in-a-lifetime concert or a hidden gem of a play, we're here to up your cultural (and fun) IQ. Here are top picks for your cultural calendar for the coming week, the coming month and beyond.

7 Sure, you like to listen to live jazz, but with so many venues here, how to decide where to go? The Jazz Institute of Chicago has a solution. To kick off the Jazz Festival (Sept. 3-6 at the Chicago Cultural Center), the institute is throwing a one-night Chicago Jazz Tour. One ticket gets you entry to 10 jazz clubs around the city, from City Life in Chatham to the Green Mill in Uptown, with Norman's Bistro in Bronzeville, the Jazz Showcase in the South Loop and the Drake Hotel's Palm Court and Coq D'Or in the Gold Coast also on the list. The Jazz Institute also is including trolley service between the clubs so you can enjoy a cocktail or two with your music. Sept. 2. $35 in advance, $40 day of tour. Various venues