A Blaze of Light

A wind turned cold. Beware the power of the Rook. When he lands, everything can change. You name trump. You take tricks (when you're not being tricked). Beware the wild ROOK! When he lands, everything can change.

Four players (options for two, three, five, or six). You name trump. You take tricks (when you're not being tricked). Beware the wild ROOK! When he lands, everything can change.

A classic game. (A favorite since 1906. Oh, my!) Easier than bridge. More challenging than Hearts. Custom-designed cards. Gorgeous. Perfect for a dark, stormy night. Bring home the ROK card game and find out.

- Deluxe coated cards for luxury "snap" and feel
- Point value noted on each card for easier play and scoring
- Contains 57 playing cards & illustrated rules

Greenville Moose Lodge 692 Raises Funds for Tusculum Police Reserve Officers' Body Armor
Greenville, TN – August 26, 2024 – The Greenville Moose Lodge 692 successfully hosted a fund-raising event on July 27th to support the Tusculum Police Department reserve officers in acquiring much-needed body armor. The event, held at the Lodge on Kiser Boulevard, brought together community members committed to enhancing the safety and well-being of local law enforcement.

Ron Bergquist Jr., a spokesperson for the Lodge, emphasized the importance of the initiative, stating, "Every officer should have the equipment that assists them in going home to their families at the end of their shift, and the generous members of the Moose Lodge agreed."

On August 26th, a check for over $2,000 was presented to Chief Danny Greene and Officer Chan Humbert. Chief Greene expressed his gratitude, noting, "We work and live in a great community where people still appreciate their police officers. This money will be used to purchase body armor for the reserves to replace vests that are about to go out of date. Many thanks to the members of Moose Lodge 692."

The donation will ensure that the reserve officers are equipped with up-to-date protective gear, reinforcing the Lodge's commitment to supporting local law enforcement and contributing to the safety of the community.
