Historian

England 932 A.D. A Kingdom divided. To the West, the Anglo- Saxons; to the East, the French. Above, nothing but Celts and some people from Scotland. In Gwynned, Powys, and Dyfed – Plague. In the kingdoms of Wessex, Sussex, and Essex and Kent – Plague. In Mercia and the two Anglias – Plague: with a 50% chance of pestilence and famine coming out of the Northeast at twelve miles per hour. Legend tells of an extraordinary leader who arose from the chaos to unite a troubled kingdom... ...A man with a vision who gathered Knights together in a Holy Quest. This man was Arthur, King of the Britons. For this, was, England!

Tim The Enchanter

Greetings - King Arthur! Yes I know your name - I am an enchanter... there are some who call me.... Tim. You seek the Holy Grail. Only the bravest will find it. Below me ... lies the cave of Caerbannog, wherein carved upon the very living rock, there be a clue which shall lead ye directly to your goal. But think well before you step into this cave, for the entrance way is guarded by a beast so foul, so cruel, no man yet has fought this evil beast and lived. So be you warned brave knights, for death awaits you all with nasty, great big pointy teeth!
