January 11, 2026

Today's readings present us with the one promised by God since the Old Testament. Upon being baptized by John, Jesus assumes his public mission, which was certainly not easy. However, he is not alone. The Holy Spirit will accompany him throughout his life and mission. "As soon as Jesus was baptized, he went up out of the water. At that moment heaven was opened, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. And a voice from heaven said, 'This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased.'" (Matthew 3:16-17). The liturgy of this Sunday invites us to discover the magnitude of our baptism. From that day on, the Holy Spirit accompanies and guides us in every moment of our lives. We only need to let him act, and he will work wonders in us. Do you know the date and day of your baptism? Do you know the name of the priest who administered the sacrament to you?

"All of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ" (Galatians 3:27). "Through the Holy Spirit, baptism is a bath that purifies, sanctifies, and justifies" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #1227).

Thank you, Lord, for loving us so much, because through our baptism you welcomed and embraced us in your arms, and you revealed us to the community to be part of the Christian family. We are all sons and daughters of God through baptism. From his baptism onward, Jesus went about doing good during his earthly life. Therefore, our commitment as baptized Christians must be the same: to do good!

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

John could not believe that Jesus would seek baptism from him, a lowly mortal man. But our God is a humble God. He does not fear our weakness. He extends his hand, saying, "It is fitting." So take his hand. Begin the work he has set out for you.

11 de enero de 2026

Las lecturas de hoy nos presentan al prometido por Dios desde el Antiguo Testamento. Al ser bautizado por Juan, Jesús asume su misión pública, nada fácil, por cierto. Sin embargo, no está solo. El Espíritu Santo lo acompañará a lo largo de su vida y misión. "En ese momento se abrieron los cielos y vio al Espíritu de Dios que bajaba como una paloma y se posaba sobre él. Al mismo tiempo, se oyó una voz del cielo que decía: 'Este es mi Hijo, el Amado; en él me complazco'. (Mateo 3:16-17). La liturgia de este domingo nos invita a descubrir la magnitud de nuestro bautismo. Desde ese día, el Espíritu Santo nos acompaña y guía en cada momento de nuestra vida. Solo basta con dejarlo actuar, y hará maravillas en nosotros. ¿Sabes la fecha y el día de tu bautismo? ¿Conoces el nombre del sacerdote que te dio el sacramento?

"Los bautizados se han revestido de Cristo" (Gálatas 3:27). "Por el Espíritu Santo, el bautismo es un baño que purifica, santifica y justifica" (Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, #1227).

Gracias, Señor, por amarnos tanto, porque por nuestro bautismo nos acogiste y abrazaste en tus brazos, y nos manifestaste ante la comunidad para formar parte de la familia cristiana. Todos somos hijos e hijas de Dios por el bautismo. Desde su bautismo, Jesús pasó haciendo el bien durante su vida terrena. Por lo tanto, nuestro compromiso como bautizados debe ser el mismo: ¡hacer el bien!

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Juan no podía creer que Jesús buscaría el bautismo de él, un humilde hombre mortal. Pero nuestro Dios es un Dios humilde. Él no teme nuestra debilidad. Extiende su mano, diciendo: "Es apropiado". Así que toma su mano. Comienza la obra que él ha establecido para ti.

Blessed Mother Teresa

Lectors, Ministers of Holy Communion, Altar Servers, Ushers, and Choir Members

In light of our new Mass schedule, I invite all of you to continue serving in parish ministries at whichever campus and Mass time you choose to attend. To support this, we are creating a new, combined ministry schedule for our three communities—one that reflects our growing unity and ensures that every liturgy is reverent, beautiful, and well supported.

As the new schedule is implemented, it is natural that parishioners will adjust their worship times and campuses over the coming weeks. During this transition, I want everyone to feel welcome and encouraged to continue serving in these important ministries as part of our shared parish life. All current and prospective ministers—Lectors, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Altar Servers, Ushers, and Choir members—from all three campuses are encouraged to serve at any campus and any Mass they attend, regardless of where they have served in the past or where they are currently registered.

To help us create this new schedule, please indicate the Mass time at which you would prefer to serve. Your response will help us plan effectively and meet the needs of each parish community. In the coming weeks, training sessions will be offered at each campus for those who wish to serve at a new location or simply refresh their formation.

Thank you for the many ways you give of yourselves in service to the Church. I am confident that this new chapter will strengthen our shared mission and deepen our love for Christ and His people.

Please send your response to Deacon Mike Green at michaelg@gas.org.

Into His Likeness provides an approachable but in-depth exploration of how to live as a disciple and experience the transformation Jesus wants to work in our lives. We might desire to live more like Christ, but we know we fall short. This book simply helps us follow those initial promptings of the Holy Spirit, so that we may more intentionally encounter Jesus anew each day and be more disposed to his grace changing us ever more into his likeness.
