December 7, 2025

During Advent, God gives us the opportunity to work and move, to not remain in one place. As an example, we have John the Baptist, an important figure of this season. He worked tirelessly announcing how to prepare the way of the Lord, what His coming would be like. The prophet Isaiah referred to John in this way: "A voice cries out in the wilderness: 'Prepare the way for the Lord, make straight paths for him'" (John 3:3). Making the paths straight implies a conversion from the depths of the heart; a radical change through a gentle yet firm process to reach God.

"The Church of this time is like a sown field with grain and chaff mixed together, that is, good and bad together. After the judgment, however, it will have only good, without any bad... From there will come the judgment of the living and the dead, and as the Gospel says: He has his winnowing fork in his hand to separate the wheat from the chaff. He will gather the wheat into his barn and burn the chaff with unquenchable fire" (Saint Augustine, 354–430, Sermon 223). Prepared or not, this Advent is the time to learn that God's timing is a time of grace. Chaff and wheat grow within us, and it is time to work on conversion to meet the Lord. Let us not forget that God expects the best from us and gives us the freedom to follow him or leave him. What do you choose? The Advent season is for examining our conscience: how we think, believe, and act.

Mini reflection: It is so, so beautiful to be culturally Catholic. But actions, rituals, traditions, sentiments, nostalgia — none of it matters unless it bears the fruit of a transformed heart.

7 de diciembre de 2025

Durante el Adviento, Dios nos brinda la oportunidad de trabajar y movernos, de no quedarnos en un solo sitio. Como ejemplo, tenemos a Juan Bautista, personaje importante de este tiempo. Él trabajó incansablemente anunciando cómo preparar el camino del Señor, cómo sería su venida. El profeta Isaías se refería a Juan de esta forma: "Una voz grita en el desierto: preparen un camino al Señor, hagan sus senderos rectos" (Juan 3:3). Hacer los senderos rectos, es decir, implica una conversión desde el fondo del corazón; un cambio radical a través de un proceso suave pero firme para llegar a Dios.

"La Iglesia de este tiempo es igual a un campo sembrado que tiene grano y paja mezclados, es decir, juntos buenos y malos. Después del juicio, en cambio, tendrá solamente buenos, sin malo alguno... De ahí vendrá el juzgar a vivos y muertos, y como dice el Evangelio: Él tiene el biello en su mano para separar el trigo de la paja. Guardará el trigo en su granero y quemará la paja en un fuego que no se extingue" (San Agustín, 354–430. Sermón 223). Preparados o no, este Adviento es el tiempo de aprender que los tiempos de Dios son momentos de gracia. Paja y trigo crecen en nosotros, y es tiempo de ponerse a trabajar en la conversión para ir al encuentro del Señor. No olvidemos que Dios espera de nosotros lo mejor y nos da la libertad de seguirlo o dejarlo. ¿Qué escoges? El tiempo de Adviento es para revisar nuestra conciencia: cómo pensamos, creemos y actuamos.

Mini Reflexión: Es tan, tan hermoso ser culturalmente católico. Pero las acciones, los rituales, las tradiciones, los sentimientos, la nostalgia, nada de eso importa a menos que dé el fruto de un corazón transformado.
