TALLAHASSEE --- The federal government is increasingly inserting itself into the fight over whether Florida public-school students should be required to wear masks, and top state education officials further escalated a feud with the feds this week. The State Board of Education on Thursday backed a recommendation by Education Commissioner Richard Corcoran to financially penalize school boards in eight counties that have maintained student mask mandates to try to prevent the spread of COVID-19. An announcement from DeSantis' office on Monday sent shockwaves through the Florida political world, as it disclosed that First Lady Casey DeSantis is battling breast cancer. The governor issued a statement about the diagnosis, though the statement did not provide details about its such as the type of breast cancer, the stage or treatment. Casey DeSantis, 41, is the mother of three children under age 5.

TALLAHASSEE --- Dwindling coronavirus cases and hospitalizations in Florida aren't slowing down Gov. Ron DeSantis' slugfest with President Joe Biden's administration over how to handle mitigation of COVID-19. As he seeks re-election in 2022 and is regarded as a top GOP contender in the run-up to the 2024 presidential election, DeSantis is hammering away at mandates imposed at the federal and local levels. In a win for DeSantis and the Seminole Tribe, a federal judge this week dismissed a lawsuit challenging a gambling agreement that allows the tribe to have control over sports betting in Florida. The case, filed in Tallahassee by owners of the pari-mutuels Magic City Casino in Miami-Dade County and Bonita Springs Poker Room in Southwest Florida, is one of three federal lawsuits challenging the agreement, which was negotiated by DeSantis and approved by the Legislature in May.

TALLAHASSEE --- It's been two months since children went back to school as the delta variant of the coronavirus rampaged across Florida. Thankfully, the situation improved in September and the first half of October, with COVID-19 cases and hospitalizations steadily dropping. But that hasn't doused the fierce legal and political debates about whether school districts should be able to require students to wear masks to try to prevent the spread of the virus. Battles continue at school-board meetings and in state, federal and administrative courts.

TALLAHASSEE --- Get ready for a noisy November in the state Capitol. Gov. Ron DeSantis all but guaranteed that Thursday when he called for a special legislative session to push back against the Biden administration about vaccination mandates. Nearly two years into the COVID-19 pandemic, political fights about vaccinations and masks show no signs of going away. And for however long a special session lasts, the rhetoric will amp up on both sides. DeSantis, widely considered a potential 2024 presidential candidate, has spent months criticizing the Biden administration on COVID-19 issues. The special session will give him and other Republicans an opportunity to tee off, as it will focus on moves by the White House to require millions of workers across the country to be vaccinated. "We want to make sure that individuals in Florida have their livelihoods and their jobs protected," DeSantis said at a news conference Thursday in Clearwater as he called for the special session.

House Sets Early November Schedule

The Florida House is expected during the first week of November to hold four days of committee meetings, including continuing work on legislative and congressional redistricting. The House posted a tentative schedule that shows meetings from Nov. 1 through Nov. 4. That includes a meeting of the House Redistricting Committee on Nov. 2 and meetings of the Congressional Redistricting Subcommittee and the State Legislative Redistricting Subcommittee on Nov. 3. The Senate earlier posted a tentative schedule that showed meetings from Nov. 2 through Nov. 4. Lawmakers last month began holding committee meetings to prepare for the 2022 legislative session, which will start in January. In all, the House and Senate are slated to hold six weeks of committee meetings. Lawmakers held their third set of meetings this week. The once-a-decade redistricting process is expected to be a dominant issue during the 2022 session.

When you become a member of ABATE OF FLORIDA, INC. you are helping make a difference in the ongoing mission to protect your right to ride and enjoy the motorcycle of your choice, your choice of riding apparel, and when and where you can ride a motorcycle. These are issues that are real and present in today's "protect yourself from yourself" political environment. This holds true for all levels of government. There will always be those who see our love for motorcycling as a negative and will try any means to control and if possible prohibit motorcycle use.

On the local level our members get out the vote and support candidates who are sympathetic to our issues. We have helped candidates across the state who in some cases faced formidable opponents, yet still won. Dear Fellow ABATE Members,

Road Rage
Victim or Perpetrator?

Several months ago, while we were over in the Miami area, a cager attempted to run someone down on his scooter! The same day (and/or close to it), a driver was shooting at another driver due to an accidental cut-off incident. Road rage incidents seem to be increasing, as society seems to be becoming more polarized and frustrated with politics, personal issues, along with the ongoing pandemic, etc...

Because we are physically more vulnerable while on a motorcycle, being the victim or perpetrator of road rage could easily turn out to be fatal and/or permanently life altering. It could happen to you and/or your passenger.

We deal with a lot of things on the road easily causing our indignation:

- Texting/cell phones – Many times they cause impediment of traffic by driving too slow, not moving when the light turns green, weaving in and out of their lane, etc...
- Aggressive drivers – Weaving in and out of lanes at high speeds, sometimes “racing” another driver doing the same things, etc...
- Heavy traffic that causes everyone aggravation...

Before riding, check any issues bothering you. Many times, the things that may cause one to explode, have been building up inside for a period of time and it only takes one little spark/incident to cause ignition!

When you are caught in a situation, follow the scripture in James 1:19-20, “Understand this, my beloved brothers and sisters. Let everyone be quick to hear [be a careful, thoughtful listener], slow to speak [a speaker of carefully chosen words and], slow to anger [patient, reflective, forgiving]; for the [resentful, deep-seated] anger of man does not produce the righteousness of God [that standard of behavior which He requires from us]" (AMP)

Ecclesiastes 7:9 says, "Do not be quick in spirit to be angry or vexed, for anger and vexation lodge in the bosom of fools." (AMPC)

Put this into your heart and always remember, "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law." Galatians 5:22-23 (NKJV)

A prayer of salvation AND protection... Please pray, "Dear God, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, my heavenly Father, the God of Jesus, I confess that I am a sinner and have been separated from You. I ask forgiveness of my sins. I repent and accept this gift of repentance and I wish to be free in You. I confess with my mouth that your son Jesus is my savior and died for me. I believe in my heart that You raised Him from the dead. I receive Jesus into my heart and ask Him to become the center of my life. I ask, in the Name of Jesus. Lord, I also pray while I am riding, for your hedge of protection, your angels to surround, and Psalm 91 protection. Amen."

If you prayed that prayer for the very first time and you have accepted Jesus into your heart, we would like to know and help you along your journey of faith.

Blessings,

Pastor Tom (SW ABATE Chaplain and Life Member and Estero River ABATE Life Member) and Chaplain Kathy (SW ABATE Life Member) 239-770-3564 or email: tprovenz@comcast.net
