

54: October 3, 2026

Shabbat Message

Vezot Ha'Bracha / And This Is the Blessing / וְזֹאת

הַבְּרָכָה

Dt 33:1-34:12

Seeds of Life Series: Torah the Seeds for Life

The Promised Land At a Glance

Introduction

This is the very last Torah portion and we see Moses is finally at the edge of the Promised Land and He is only allowed to look but not go in until we see a couple of thousand years later on a mountain in Israel He gets to gain entrance into the Promised Land with the Messiah Himself.

The One that Moses wrote about! Let's see some more about the end of Moses' life.

Moses Died

Deuteronomy 34:5-6

1. Moses' burial place is unknown today.
2. That was even true until this day that is at the time of the final composition of the book of Deuteronomy.
3. Jude referred to the mystery surrounding Moses' burial place, alluding to the dispute of Michael the archangel with the devil about the matter (Jude 9).

A Young One Hundred Twenty

Deuteronomy 34:7

1. Moses' remarkable vitality at the age of 120 years is mentioned to make the point that he died not of natural causes because he had finished the task of leadership which Elohim had called him.
2. A person is immortal until Elohim pleases to let his life come to an end.
3. We were made to live to 120 according to the Bible but because of sin we lost it. Genesis 6:3

Under New Leadership

Deuteronomy 34:9

1. Yehoshua (Joshua) had been well schooled to succeed Moshe (3:28; 31:7-8; Num 27:18-21), but all the training in the word was insufficient without his being filled with the Ruach of wisdom. (Num 11:17,24,30).
2. When it was apparent to the people that Yehoshua was adequately prepared for leadership they obeyed him.
3. As Yehoshua son of Nun lead the children of Israel into the Promised Land so to Yehoshua Ben David led the people to the Kingdom of Elohim.

The Greatness of Moses

Deuteronomy 34:10

1. It is impossible to know when the last words of Deuteronomy were penned but whoever id so remarked that until his day no prophet like unto Moses had arisen again in Israel.
2. What set him apart was that he was the only one Elohim communicated with face to face. (Exod 33:19-23; Num 12:6-8).
3. Then one arose that was even greater than Moses that even he prophesied about in Deuteronomy 18 which was ultimately fulfilled in Yeshua HaMashiach.

The Uniqueness of Moses

Deuteronomy 34:11-12

1. Moses was unique among the prophets also in the number and nature of the signs and wonders, which Yehovah sent him to do in the land of Egypt (Exod 4-12).
2. These had the effect of convincing the Egyptians of the mighty hand of Israel's Elohim (Exod 8:19; 9:27-28; 10:16-17).
3. They were also performed in the sight of all Israel to persuade Yehovah's own people of His mighty power and glory (Exod 14:31).

Take Away

1. Moses died at the age of One Hundred Twenty Years old yet He was still full of vigor.
2. Joshua the son of Nun was the next leader in line who Yehovah used to bring the people to the land of Israel.
3. Besides Yeshua Moses is the greatest of the prophets that came after He wouldn't been mentioned by Yeshua so many times.

Application

1. I will live a godly life so by Elohim's Grace I can live to be old without losing my strength.
2. I am immortal until I am done with what Yehovah has for me.

3. I will continue to run my race with diligence that I might finish well.

Beth Ohr Messianic Congregation

Torah Cycle 2025-2026