- ✳️ All throughout Scripture, we find that the messengers are associated with stars.

- Jewish Virtual Library

“The Magen David (shield of David, or as it is more commonly known, the Star of David) is the symbol most commonly associated with Judaism today, but it is actually a relatively new Jewish symbol. It is supposed to represent the shape of King David’s shield (or perhaps the emblem on it), but there is really no support for that claim in any early rabbinic literature. In fact, the symbol is so rare in early Jewish literature and artwork that art dealers suspect forgery if they find the symbol in early works.

jewishvirtuallibrary.org/magen-david

- “Scholars such as Franz Rosenzweig have attributed deep theological significance to the symbol. For example, some note that the top triangle strives upward, toward G-d, while the lower triangle strives downward, toward the real world. Some note that the intertwining makes the triangles inseparable, like the Jewish people.
- Some say that the three sides represent the three types of Jews: Kohanim, Levites and Israel. Some note that there are actually 12 sides (3 exterior and 3 interior on each triangle), representing the 12 tribes. While these theories are theologically interesting, they have little basis in historical fact.”

- “The symbol of intertwined equilateral triangles is a common one in the Middle East and North Africa, and is thought to bring good luck. It appears occasionally in early Jewish artwork, but never as an exclusively Jewish symbol.
- The nearest thing to an ‘official’ Jewish symbol at the time was the seven-branched “menorah.”

- In the 17th century, it became a popular practice to put Magen Davids on the outside of Jewish synagogues to identify them as Jewish houses of worship in much the same way that a cross identified a Christian house of worship.

- The so-called "Star of David" gained popularity as a symbol of Judaism when it was adopted as the emblem of the Zionist movement in 1897, but the symbol continued to be very controversial for many years. When the modern state of Israel was founded in 1948, there was much debate over whether this symbol should be used on the flag.

- Today, of course, the "Star of David" is a universally recognized symbol of Jewry. It appears on the flag of the state of Israel and the Israeli equivalent of the Red Cross is known as the Magen David Adom.
- Its real origins, however, are not so pure...

The Hexagram

- The so-called “Star of David” is essentially a “hexagram/hexagon,” nothing more, nothing less.
- There is no Biblical or Jewish evidence that traces this ancient occult symbol with king David of Israel.
- However, it is thought that it was used by king Solomon, after he turned to pagan gods and the occult, late in his life, causing Elohim to become very angry with him. (one of many theories)

1 Kings 11:1-13

- A Masonic book called The Second Mile, an Eastern Star book, reveals that the “six pointed star is a very ancient symbol, and one of the most powerful.”
- The hexagram is used in magic, witchcraft, sorcery and occultism and the casting of zodiacal horoscopes by astrologers.
- “It was considered to posses mysterious powers,”

- The six pointed star is used as a “stand-by for magicians and alchemists. The sorcerers believed it represented the footprints of a special kind of DEMON called a trud and used it in ceremonies both to call up demons and to keep them away”

(O. J. Graham, The Six Pointed Star, New Puritan Library, 1988, p.35)

- Masonic and Occult Symbols Illustrated, by Dr. Cathy Burns,

“The Hexagram is formed by uniting the Water Triangle with the Fire Triangle, which is the Six-pointed Star, Star of David, Solomon’s Seal, etc. When the two triangles (the ‘Water Triangle’ and the ‘Fire Triangle’) are joined together into one symbol, it forms a six pointed star known as a double triangle, hexagram, Crest of Solomon, star of the microcosm and the Shield of David, among other names. It is even called the ‘talisman of Saturn’” (p.38).

The Hexagram

Bill Schnoebelen, a former Satanist, tells us,

- “To the sorcerer, the hexagram is a powerful tool to invoke Satan.” In fact, the word “hex” -- as to put a “hex” or “curse” on people -- comes from this word.

Ironically though, Schnoebelen still defends the Magen David as a valid Jewish symbol.

- In fact, the hexagram was also used by the ancient Hindus in the worship of their divine "Trinity" – Brahma, Vishnu and Shiva – as the "unity" of three gods in one. J. S. M. Ward adds that it is "strictly the sign of Trimurti, the Three in One, typifying the creative, preservative and destructive natures of the Deity."

The Magen David / Star of David

- If you examine the so-called "Star of David", or hexagram, closely, you will discover that it has six points, forms six equilateral triangles, and in its interior forms a six sided hexagon -- thus it reveals the number of Satan the devil, or the beast of Revelation -- 66, and 6 -- 666 !!!

The Star of Saturn

(Baal, Moloch, Remphan, Shamash, Sakkuth, Kaiwan ...)

The Magen David / Star of David

- Archaeologist *E.A. Wallace Budge, an authority on ancient Egyptian mythology, relates: "Those who believed in the physical significance of the Hexagram taught that communication between the living and the dead was possible, and adopted the dogma of reincarnation "

(Amulets and Superstition, p.432)

An Occult Sex Symbol

- The hexagram also has a sexual connotation.
- It represents sexual union.
- The triangle pointed downward is a female symbol and the triangle pointed upward is the male symbol; when they are interlaced it represents coitus, or sexual union of the active and passive forces in nature. A former witch reveals, "When the male triangle penetrates the female triangle it produced the six pointed crest of Solomon or hexagram, the most wicked symbol in witchcraft" (Burns, ibid., p.39).

Sexual Union

The Magen David / Star of David

A Masonic author declares that the triangles that make up the hexagram "are symbolic of good and evil, day and night, the Chinese yang and yin, etc." In the Masonic system, we have the interlaced triangles, one black and one white, the white triangle with its point up, the black triangle with its point down. It represents the male and female elements.

The interlaced black and white triangles picture darkness and light, good and evil, error and truth, ignorance and wisdom, and supposedly balance and harmony.

The Magen David / Star of David

In The Gods of India, by Alain Danielou, we read:

“The triangle with its apex upward is also taken to represent fire, identified with the male principle, the linga or phallus, symbol of Siva the Progenitor or of the Cosmic Person . . .

“The triangle pointed downward represents the force of inertia which pulls downward, and tends to suppress activity. It is associated with the element of water, which always tends to come down, to equalize its level. It is the passive aspect of creation and thus is represented by the yoni or female organ, the emblem of Energy or Cosmic Nature”

(quoted by Dr. Burns, p.35)

- We see that this ancient occult figure of the hexagram, or Seal of Solomon, or Star of David - is nothing more than a pagan symbol of sexual union and reproduction. The triangle pointing downward represents the female sexual organ, and the upward pointing triangle represents the male penis. Joined together in the hexagram, they represent the act of sexual intercourse. Thus the hexagram was a part of Satan's original "sex worship" rites and symbols of ancient BAALISM.

- The Christians have their "cross" – also an ancient pagan phallic symbol of sex worship.
- And the Jewish people have the Seal of Solomon or hexagram – another ancient pagan sex symbol!

The image features a central rectangular area of aged, textured paper. The paper has a mottled appearance with various shades of beige, cream, and light brown, suggesting foxing or water damage over time. It is framed by a solid, vibrant blue border at the top and bottom. The word "Origin" is printed in a bold, black, sans-serif font, centered horizontally and vertically within the paper area.

Origin

- The first martyr of the Messianic Community, Stephen, in his defense before the Sanhedrin, warned the Jewish nation, as he reviewed the history of Israel:
- “So Elohim turned and gave them up to worship the host of the heaven, as it has been written in the book of the Prophets, ‘Did you bring slaughtered beasts and offerings unto Me during forty years in the wilderness, O house of Yisra’ēl? ‘And you took up the tent of Molek, and the star of your mighty one Kiyyun, images which you made to bow before them. Therefore I shall remove you beyond Babel.’ Acts 7:42-43 (ISR)

- Remphan, (hrem-fan') is the King James Version of the Bible's rendering of the Greek word variously appearing in Acts 7:43 as Ρομφα, Ρεμφάν, Ρεμφαμ, Ραιφαν, and Ρεφαν.
- It is part of a quotation from Amos 5:26 where the Septuagint's reading raiphan or rephan stands for the Hebrew Kiyun or Kewani.
  - But you lifted up your images Siccuth your 'king', and Chiun, your star gods – which you made for yourselves

Saturn, Etymology

Saturn

Old English Sætern, name of the Roman god, also, in astronomy, the name of the most remote planet (then known); from Latin Saturnus, originally a name of an Italic god of agriculture, possibly from Etruscan. Derivation from Latin serere (past participle satus) "to sow" is said to be folk-etymology.

An ancient Italic deity, popularly believed to have appeared in Italy in the reign of Janus, and to have instructed the people in agriculture, gardening, etc., thus elevating them from barbarism to social order and civilization. His reign was sung by the poets as "the golden age." [Century Dictionary]

Identified with Greek Kronos, father of Zeus. Also the alchemical name for lead (late 14c.). In Akkadian, the planet was kaïamanu, literally "constant, enduring," hence Hebrew kiyyun, Arabic and Persian kaiwan "Saturn."

- Many theologians believe the ancient Egyptian name for Saturn was Remphan, though this is still highly debated, as many don't want to associate the use of the Star of David with Saturn or a pagan symbol.

- This image shows the unexpected "hot spot" at Saturn's north pole. Scientists were surprised to find that the north pole, despite being in winter darkness for more than a decade, is home to a hot, cyclonic vortex very similar to that found on Saturn's much sunnier south pole.

NASA

- Saturn's polar hexagon was discovered by David Godfrey in 1987, from piecing together fly-by views from the 1981 Voyager mission, and was revisited in 2006 by the Cassini mission.

- If Saturn's polar hexagon was discovered in 1981, then how did Ancient Cultures know about Saturn's Hexagon?

How did this figure become popular in Israel?

Here's one of the theories:

- Solomon, after he became king of Israel, "made a treaty with PHARAOH king of Egypt, and married Pharaoh's daughter; then he brought her to the city of David until he had finished building his own house" (I Kings 3:1).
- The influence of the daughter of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, was no doubt considerable -- the foremost and chiefest of all his wives.

- Solomon who loved the Lord in the beginning of his reign, turned away from the true path of worship as he grew older.
- And Sovereign Shelomoh loved many foreign women in addition to the daughter of Pharaoh: Mo'abite, Ammonite, Edomite, Tsidonian, and Hittite women; from the nations of whom יהוה had said to the children of Yisra'el, "You do not go into them, and they do not go into you, for they shall certainly turn away your hearts after their mighty ones." Shelomoh clung to these in love. I Kings 11:1-2 (ISR)

- “For it was so when Solomon was old, that his wives turned his heart after other gods; and his heart was not loyal to the LORD his God, as was the heart of his father David” (v.4).
- Solomon worshipped, among other gods, Ashtoreth (Easter, Venus, Aprhodite), Milcom or Molech, the fiery king of gods whose rites included human sacrifice and witchcraft and sexual orgies, and Chemosh (vs. 5-7).
- Solomon built high places, temples, and altars, for these pagan abominations, “And he did likewise for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and sacrificed to their gods” (v.8).

- It is theorized that king Solomon adopted the Hexagram, which became known as "Solomon's Seal." When he went astray from Elohim's path of truth, and began to consort with evil forces, he became a powerful wizard, or consulter of demons and the occult powers of darkness.
- Thus some believe that Solomon made the hexagram a prominent symbol in ancient Israel. He adopted it from the pagan nations around him.

- According to legend, King Solomon used the Seal of Solomon to control demons and spirits. This power is detailed in the "Testament of Solomon," an ancient apocryphal text. The story describes Solomon receiving a magical ring from the archangel Michael, engraved with the Seal. With this ring, Solomon commanded spirits and forced them to help build the First Temple in Jerusalem.

- The Seal's power allowed Solomon to summon and control various demons, who had to obey his commands. He could bind these spirits and make them reveal hidden knowledge or perform tasks. The "Testament of Solomon" lists different demons Solomon controlled, each with unique abilities and secrets. These stories highlight the Seal's incredible power and its role in Solomon's legendary wisdom.

- Other sources suggest Solomon used the Seal to protect himself from evil forces. The symbol acted as a barrier, ensuring that no harmful spirit could harm him. This ability to harness supernatural power made Solomon one of the most revered figures in magical traditions. The legend of the Seal as a tool for commanding spirits cemented its place in history as a symbol of immense power and authority.

- There is no evidence to connect the hexagram with David, his father. There is no reason to believe that David, a man after Elohim's own heart, would ever adopt a pagan symbol for his "shield."

- How did this ancient occult symbol find its way into Judaism, and become the major symbol today of the Jewish people, adorning the Israeli flag?
- When did the hexagram become a symbol of the Jewish people?
- Why and how did the six-pointed star become connected with the MODERN state of Israel?
- The flag was designed for the First Zionist Movement in 1891 and was adopted by the First Zionist Congress in 1897.

Herzl's proposed flag

Theodore Herzl, one of the founding members, stated in 1896, "We have no flag, and we need one. If we desire to lead many men, we must raise a symbol above their heads. I would suggest a white flag, with seven golden stars. The white field symbolized our pure new life; the stars are the seven golden hours of our working day. For we shall march into the Promise Land carrying the badge of honor". Herzl's flag was a Magen David, yet, he did not describe it as a Star of David.

The Magen David / Star of David

David Wolffsohn, a businessman prominent in the early Zionist movement, was aware that the nascent Zionist movement had no official flag, and that the design proposed by Herzl was gaining no significant support, wrote:

At the behest of our leader Herzl, I came to Basle to make preparations for the Zionist Congress. Among many other problems that occupied me then was one that contained something of the essence of the Jewish problem. What flag would we hang in the Congress Hall? Then an idea struck me. We have a flag—and it is blue and white. The talith (prayer shawl) with which we wrap ourselves when we pray: that is our symbol. Let us take this Talith from its bag and unroll it before the eyes of Israel and the eyes of all nations. So I ordered a blue and white flag with the Shield of David painted upon it. That is how the national flag, that flew over Congress Hall, came into being.

- It was also adopted as the family crest or shield by the Rothschild Family during the 19th century. The Rothschilds bought a great deal of property in Israel, from the Turks and Arabs, and were amongst the major supporters of the Zionist movement in the early decades. The influence of the Rothschilds and their heavy financial support of Israel, led the Jewish nation to adopt the so-called "Star of David" as their own symbol as a nation.

What should Elohim's people do about these things?

The prophet Jeremiah states,

*Hear the word which יהוה speaks to you, O house of Yisra'el. Thus said יהוה, "Do not learn the way of the nations, and do not be awed by the signs of the heavens, for the nations are awed by them. "For the laws of these peoples are worthless, for one cuts a tree from the forest, work for the hands of a craftsman with a cutting tool. ## The apostle Paul wrote:

Do not become unevenly yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness and lawlessness? And what fellowship has light with darkness? And what agreement has Messiah with Beliya'al? Or what part does a believer have with an unbeliever? And what union has the Dwelling Place of Elohim with idols? For you are a Dwelling Place of the living Elohim, as Elohim has said, "I shall dwell in them and walk among them, and I shall be their Elohim, and they shall be My people." Therefore, "Come out from among them and be separate, says יהוה, and do not touch what is unclean, and I shall receive you. "And I shall be a Father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to Me, says יהוה the Almighty."

- As the apostle Paul declared, its time to repent and put away all these pagan emblems and symbols, and become holy and pure before Elohim.
