MALISSE Skin Bar

MALISSE Skin Bar is a woman-owned and -operated skincare and medical aesthetics practice located in the heart of Vienna. Founder Mali Amini is a licensed master aesthetician with over 25 years of experience in skincare and has been recognized multiple times by ALLURE Magazine in "The Best of Beauty" issues, including for the best facial in the Washington, DC area.

"We provide a soothing, stress-free environment where our guests and patients can relax and be pampered while receiving their personalized skincare treatments, medical-grade nail and foot care, and therapeutic massages — all so they can look as young as they feel, and their skin will reflect the youth that's bubbling inside!"

Medical-grade facials, regenerative skincare, and age-defying treatments address many of the most common non-surgical skin concerns. Treatments are customized to be suitable for all ages, genders, and skin types. "Depending on your needs, they can exfoliate, hydrate, rejuvenate, boost collagen, treat signs of aging, skin laxity, and erase fine lines and wrinkles for a beautiful, natural, and youthful look."

Soothing techniques, the expertise of experienced medical and aesthetic professionals, state-of-the-art treatments backed by science, and the finest, trusted skincare products, bring lasting health, wellness, and beauty.

"We set the platinum standard for skincare and wellness! An extraordinary experience that will leave our clients revitalized, and glowing so they look their most fabulous selves!"
