Guest Speakers

Wesley & Odyssey Wofford:

Wesley Wofford is Academy Award winning artist and an American Figurative Sculptor born in 1972. His monumental installations and portraits can be found in both Public and Private locations throughout the United States. Wofford grew up in a rural Georgian town. In 2002 he moved to the mountains of North Carolina with his family to pursue Fine Art Sculpture full time. Odyssey Wofford is his Studio Director and the couple operates Wofford Sculpture Studio from a ridge-line overlooking the National Forest.

Tina Wyatt:

Ernestine "Tina" Martin Wyatt is a 3-times-grandniece of Harriet Tubman. Wyatt is a mother, grandmother, educator, nurse and artist. Her great-great-grandmother, Ann Marie Stewart, was the daughter of Soph, one of Tubman's sisters who was sold away.

Mrs. Wyatt is a frequent guest speaker at events connected with Harriet Tubman and was in Georgetown, SC in 2019 for the dedication of the James A. Bowley historical market at 231 King Street.

Kate Clifford Larson:

Kate Clifford Larson is a bestselling author of biographies including Bound for the Promised Land: Harriet Tubman, Portrait of an American Hero, and Rosemary: The Hidden Kennedy Daughter. Her latest work, Walk With Me: A Biography of Fannie Lou Hamer tells the remarkable story of one of America's most important civil rights leaders of the 20th century. Larson is also an award-winning consultant for feature film scripts, documentaries, museum exhibits, and public history initiatives. Dr. Larson is a Brandeis University Women's Studies Research Center Visiting Scholar.

Dr. Larson was in Georgetown, SC in 2019 for the dedication of the James A. Bowley historical market at 231 King Street.
