Resources for You.

The Transgender Information Hub offers information about a variety of resources for transgender and non-binary individuals. These resources range include legal aid, mental health and medical supports, and other resources.

Mental Health

- Where can I get mental health support?

If you are having suicidal thoughts, need emergency mental health support, or are worried about someone else, call or text 988 to connect with a trained crisis counselor 24/7 at the Suicide and Crisis Lifeline. Additional crisis and non-emergency services are available in NJ.

Name Change

- How do I change my legal name?

On the Hub, there is a comprehensive step-by-step guide about how to change your legal name. This includes the necessary information, links, and forms to properly go about this change.

Protections

- Where can I get legal help?

New Jersey has a comprehensive anti-discrimination law that includes protections for people based on gender identity and gender expression. Visit the Hub for links and descriptions regarding legal aid.

Medical Support

- Where can I get health care services?

Visit the Hub for a directory of over 200 healthcare providers that have proactively identified themselves as LGBTQ friendly. Featured on the website is the Garden State Equality Affirming Healthcare Map and a list of health care centers that provide services specifically to the LGBTQ community.
