

Planned Achievements: Metrics of Success

Assembloids

- % of partners who reported a change of policy incorporating youth voices
- % of partners who reported an increase of youth in their organization at the decision-making level
- % of partners reported that participating in program was “critical” and “contributed positively” to the success of their organization
- % of innovation challenge proposed solutions implemented
- % of youth who felt their voices heard
- % of youth and partners who would like to remain working together
- % of youth who reported a career change towards desired field

CAST 4ward

- % of youth who sold their art
- % of youth who have increased knowledge of the SDGs
- % of youth who have expressed a personal connection to an SDG
- % of people exposed to SDGs through their art
- % of youth who have sold more than 5 art pieces
- % of youth who would recommend program to a friend
- % of youth who started their own business or pursued further education and training

Organizational

- Number of cites, shares, or social media mentions of publications or efforts
- Number of lives touched by program participants
- Number of new data created surrounding youth well-being and development
- Number of partners gained and alliances formed

