National Association of Christian Lawmakers Appoints Rep. Marlin Stutzman (IN) as Chair for the U.S. House of Representatives

WASHINGTON, D.C. – The National Association of Christian Lawmakers (NACL) is pleased to announce the appointment of Rep. Marlin Stutzman of Indiana as NACL Chair for the U.S. House of Representatives.

Rep. Stutzman, a proven conservative leader and advocate for faith-based principles in government, will champion NACL efforts to advocate Judeo-Christian values in the U.S. House of Representatives. His leadership will focus on uniting Christian lawmakers in Congress and across the nation to promote legislation consistent with biblical truth, defend religious liberty, and uphold the foundational values upon which America was established.

“We are honored to have Congressman Marlin Stutzman serve in this important leadership role,” said Jason Rapert, Founder and President of the NACL. “Congressman Stutzman has long demonstrated courage, integrity, and unwavering commitment to his faith and to the people he serves. His experience as a state legislator and member of Congress demonstrates proven leadership that we believe will strengthen the NACL as he works with our elected official members around the United States.”

Rep. Stutzman previously served in the Indiana House of Representative and Indiana State Senate before serving in Congress. Known for his dedication to limited government, fiscal responsibility, and Christian values, he continues to be a respected voice for faith and freedom in public life.

“I’m honored to join with my fellow Christian lawmakers through the NACL to stand for faith, family, and freedom in Washington,” said Rep. Stutzman. “Now more than ever, our nation needs leaders who will boldly live out their faith and defend the foundational principle of religious liberty that made America great and essential to all other freedoms both here and abroad.”

“From the very beginning of the NACL our vision has been to unite local, state and federal elected officials together across the country who share Christian values and want to restore the Judeo-Christian foundation of our nation,” said Rep. John McCravy of South Carolina, Chair of the NACL - National Legislative Council. “We appreciate Congressman Stutzman for joining with us as we work to save our nation.”

The NACL will be hosting their 2025 Annual Meeting & Awards Gala at College of the Ozarks in Point Lookout, MO, October 31 - November 1, 2025. Congressman Stutzman will be a featured speaker at the event which includes other notable figures including former U.S. Attorney General John Ashcroft, Former Ohio Congressman Bob McEwen, Newsmax television host Todd Starnes, Dr. Ben Graham who serves as Faith Director for the U.S. Department of the Interior, State Representative Nate Schatzline of Texas, and many others.

About the National Association of Christian Lawmakers:

The National Association of Christian Lawmakers (NACL) is dedicated to uniting federal, state, and local lawmakers in support of clear biblical principles. Through regular meetings, NACL members discuss crucial issues and propose model statutes, ordinances, and resolutions that address major policy concerns from a biblical worldview. The NACL held its charter meeting in 2020 and now has members and supporters across all 50 states and Puerto Rico. As the first formally organized national association of Christian elected officials in American history, NACL remains committed to its mission.
