

E. M. "Nat" Watson Jr. Athletic Scholarship

E. M. "Nat" Watson, Jr, "Coach Watson" born on May 2, 1910, in Boley, OK, graduated from Boley High, Langston University, and retired from an illustrious career as a coach and principal from Dunbar High school in Shawnee, OK had a major impact on the life and success of many students. Well known for his prowess as a football coach and his reputation to connect with youngsters and team members continued throughout his career. And afterwards. His household was a hub for families, community events, and round table discussions for educational and political alliances, but most importantly, a place for his students. This energetic atmosphere was the spark that fueled Nat's personality, he was gregarious, interested in and encouraging to his students, friends, and neighbors. Coach Watson touched the lives of many Shawnee High football players. One, Bill Ford of Shawnee Milling Company and his football friends. So much so, in return they established a scholarship to continue his legacy of making a difference in the lives of young athletes as Coach Watson did for so many. The first two scholarships were awarded in 2018.
