

THE ROAD REPORT

THATS A WRAP!

This month, "On the Road for Climate Action" officially drew to a close as we were welcomed home with a public reception/presentation that was filled with family, friends, and other community members.

This was the warmest home-coming celebration that we could have asked for, with Teri (Shahir's mom) introducing us to the crowd. All said, we touched down in 36 states. Wow!

Roughly 80 people came to hear us recap the last 3 months, share stories, and explain the important climate threat we're all facing. It was really a spectacular day! Thank you to everyone that came out to support us! And a special thank you to those at the OC Interfaith Coalition on the Environment who organized the event!

A HOLIDAY GIFT!

What better gift for the holidays than a book that debunks climate myths??

new book, Beyond Debate, for your friends, neighbors, or family!

NOAM CHOMSKY INTERVIEW

Recall that Shahir recently got to interview Professor Noam Chomsky on climate change. The video is now online, click here to watch!!

HOME STRETCH CONTINUED!

Although we have hit a major milestone by completing our national tour, neither Shahir nor myself feel that our climate work is over. Rather, we think the road for climate action may just be getting started. We don't know exactly where the road will take us next, or how we'll afford it, but we think the work is too important to stop. Perhaps we'll secure some official sponsorship. Or maybe we won't. We'll see. For now, we've been incredibly grateful to small individual donations which have trickled in from across the country. We'll stretch these resources as far as we can. For anyone reading, please consider offering a small donation by clicking here! I assure you, no donation is too small.

WHAT'S NEXT??...

We're taking the next few months to reflect on our journey, consider lessons learned, and identify how we can most effectively apply ourselves to climate outreach moving forward. Oh yeah, and raise capital for Project 2, through work and fund raising! For our next climate project, we're considering an outreach tour over less distance, to reduce travel time. "On the Road for Climate Action - Pacific Northwest" comes to mind! We shall see. In the meantime, we'll be giving climate talks in our area and working with local action groups; not to mention we still have many video interviews and blogs to edit and post to our website. When we arrived home, we went door-to-door canvassing for Harley Rouda's campaign for Congress, which was against long-time incumbent and well-known climate skeptic Dana Rohrabacher. Well high-five, Harley won! This is a victory for the climate! Thank you again to all who have followed our journey and helped support our work! As we are now "off the road," you'll be receiving these newsletters only once per month. As our activities pick up in preparation for our next journey after the New Year, we'll resume our usual schedule. Below is a picture of Shahir's book and a letter en route to Al Gore's office. We bumped into his office manager on our last day on the road. Fluke, or destiny? Who knows! We'll keep you all posted!
