Grand Knight's Report

Brother Knights and Officers:

I hope everyone is staying cool. We are in the middle of summer and vacation. It's a time for going to the pool, or the beach and a time for an ice cream sundae or glass of ice cold lemonade. Before long, the children or grandchildren will be going back to school.

As we begin our new fraternal year let us think about how we can share our gifts with others in need. As a Christian charitable organization we should do God's work. I know many of you volunteer around your parish and help in fraternal events, if you would like to volunteer there are many ways you can just ask one of the officers or a Brother Knight.

It is also time to think about recruiting a Catholic man for the Knights so we can achieve Double Star Council 3 years in a row. We will begin with a 1st degree ceremony August 14th at St Clarence's Terrace room. Please plan on coming and supporting our degree team and showing the new candidates your devotion to the order.

Remember, we say the Rosary every 2nd meeting of the month in the Terrace room at 7:00 PM. I know for me, this is a special time for me because of my busy schedule; I look forward to taking the time to pray the rosary and keep all our family, friends and brother Knights in our prayers.

I hope you have a safe and restful summer and look forward to seeing you at a meeting.

Vivat Jesus

Jim Sanzi
Grand Knight

K. of C. OFFICERS'S INSTALLATION LITURGY AND CEREMONIAL

Attention All Members, especially newly exemplified members, and our wives, and our children (over six years).....

It has become a Council 4731 tradition for many members and their families to attend the K. of C. Officers' Installation Mass, with our chaplain, Fr. Joe McNulty, and the Officers' Installation Ceremonial, as conducted by our District Deputy. Last year we had just a couple shy of 100 on hand to start the new Knights' year and to show our support of our newly elected officers.

The Liturgy will be at St. Clarence followed by a cake and coffee reception. At this writing, the date is yet to be determined, but do make a commitment and intention now to attend, and bring your spouse and family to this dignified ceremonial.

The Officers' Installation is the only K. of C. Ceremonial that is open to viewing by non-Knights, and Supreme encourages councils to promote it as a family event for 2008-2009 and beyond.

If listened to intently, the District Deputy's charge to each new officer is a wonderful message to Brother Knights, as well as an instruction to wives and families as to what the Knights of Columbus is all about.
