Grand Knight's Report

Grand Knight Kevin Cornelius

Brother Knights and Families,

This is my first letter to you, so I thought it would be a chance to let you know some things about myself. I was raised in Columbus, (Buckeye fan to the bone) and moved into the Cleveland area about 22 years ago. I am married to a wonderful wife, Judy, and we have been blessed with three wonderful children.

My first impressions of the Knights of Columbus came as a young boy at my Confirmation. During the sacrament celebrations, I couldn't help but notice how reverent and regal the Sir Knights were during the ceremony. They were an awesome sight to someone getting confirmed to be "a soldier of Christ".

As impressed I was, I was not remotely aware of all the many Christ centered activities the Knights do. It was later in life that a fellow coworker (and Past Grand Knight) Tom Kilbane approached me about being a Knight. He told me about some of the many programs council 4731 did to help people.

As the kids grew older, I came back to the things Tom had mentioned. What stuck was that Council 4731 is a council that lives their Christian faith through prayer, good works, patriotism and brotherhood.

Not a day goes by when I don't thank God for bringing the Knights into my life. I am humbled to be able to express my faith through the Knights of Columbus and Council 4731.

I look forward to serving our council over the next two years. Helping others is what our council is all about and everyone's help is truly needed. If you haven't been involved in some of the many programs our council has, I urge you to do so. We really need your participation.

Do not forget that we have a Family Picnic on August 1st. Good food and family fun are assured for everyone!

I also wish to thank Jim Sanzi for his leadership as Grand Knight these past 2 years. Jim has been an inspiration and I have very big shoes to fill.

Please keep all our Brothers and their family in your prayers.

Vivat Jesus
Kevin Cornelius
Grand Knight

A personal invitation to our Friend in Christ

Difficult times often inspire people to become more extraordinary. Challenge and adversity can push people toward their own greatness. It can launch you on a deeper personal journey toward happiness, fulfillment, and a life of meaning. As you explore ways to gather strength and improve self-esteem, remember, it is not so much about what you have but who you are. May the Knights of Columbus inspire you. May you go from strength to strength and be a source of strength to others.

Please consider this your personal invitation have your candidate become a part of the world's largest fraternal organization of catholic men, The Knights of Columbus. While membership is offered to all Practicing catholic men over 18; experience tells us that the man who joins has more benefits, graces and rewards come to him and his family as an active knight.

KofC Super Cash Bonanza Drawing

I (Peter Frank) was at the KofC convention on Friday May 28, 2010 along with Jim Sanzi GN, Henry Kleinhenz PGK, and Jim Bailey PGK. The Charity drawing for the 20 prizes took place at 9 PM. None of the winning tickets were sold by our Council.

Our Council was the 4th highest Council in the State for the total number of tickets sold. The Garfield Council was 3rd highest beating us by just one ticket. As you know, we sold 2,113 tickets (increased to 2,122 Friday night). This amounts to 78 or only 3.5% less tickets sold as compared with last year. We did meet the seven tickets per member goal.

The closest winner to our Council was from Avon, Ohio. One winner was from MI while the other winning tickets were from cities scattered throughout Ohio.

At the convention, I learned that in the State there 9,000 or 6% less tickets sold this year than last year (139,000 vs. 148,000). We all should be proud of our results. I also want to congratulate Gene Hanzely and Rudy Chavez for the number of hours they devoted to selling tickets at the Giant Eagle stores. Also, Jeff Keeper devoted many hours selling tickets through organizations.

The winners are in another article and posted on the Ohio KofC website <http://www.kofcoho.org/>

The top seller in our Council was Gene Hanzely, PGK ($50; 362 tickets); 2nd top seller was Rudy Chavez ($30; 278 tickets); and the organization top seller was Jeff Keeper ($30; 172 tickets). At the June 2nd meeting we had the drawing for ten cash prizes of $20 each. In alphabetical order, the winners are: James Bartlebaugh; Rudy Chavez (2 times); Leonard Eifel; Stuart Foster; Gene Hanzely, PGK (3 times); Joseph Hoehn and Louis Kaszas.

A Disasterous Decade for the Average Equity Investor

A comparison spreadsheet of investing in a K of C annuity (any type) as compared to the various commonly used stock equity indexes

Each column follows an initial investment of $100,000 made at the start of this decade - 1/1/2000

NASDAQ Index - a basket of technology and small business stocks often used for indexes called "emerging equity or small cap equity" funds.

DIJA Index - a group of 30 very large cap stocks that have familiar names to almost every investor - often used as a "big cap growth" fund.

S&P 500 Index - a group of 500 common name mid and large cap stocks and the most commonly used index for equity investments as it represents 80% of the market

KC beats S&P 500

Fact One: KC Annuities offer you deferred or no interest, no fees, no admin charges, no probate and a whole host of other fine features.

Fact Two: Past performance is no guarantee of future performance but the slow, boring and steady usually wins the race in the long run. See above.

Fact Three: Annuities can be structured to accept money from 401K's, bank CD's, any investment regular IRA or Roth IRA, SEP's, or just regular money.

Fact Four: Are you expecting a quick economic boom and recovery, or a long difficult recovery similar to the 1930's or 1970's / 1980's?

Fact Five: If you are nearing or in retirement, your opportunities to earn back what you have already lost are becoming quite limited indeed.

Fact Six: Hindsight is 20/20, but would you rather be sitting with a 60%, or losses of 53%, 13% or 27% respectively after over 10 painful years???

Fact Seven: If you wanted to catch back up to where the annuity will be in 10 more years, you'd need to earn an annualized gain of over 14%!!!

Fact Eight: If you know where we can both get that 14.4% annualized guaranteed gain in this economic and tax environment, please share it with me too!

Fact Nine: KC annuities currently are paying from 3% to 3.75% on new deposits - about three times the average rates offered at your local bank or thrift.

Fact Ten: Current CD rates in the region are just over 1% for one year and just over 2% for a five year lock in. Why would you accept rates this low??

The following Awards were presented at the Annual Ohio State Convention May 29, 2010 at the Renaissance Hotel in downtown Cleveland. Delegates Jim Sanzi GK, and Henry Kleinhenz FS were in attendance.

Award of Excellence; This award is given to the Council for having all required reports and audits submitted to the State on time. A big Thanks goes to Henry Kleinhenz for submitting these reports.

Best Pro-Life Activity; This award was presented to the Council for providing the "Loving Hands of God" statues to all our Parishes. Thanks to Paul Matheison, Jerry Nowesnick PGK, Phil Senko, and Kevin Cornelius for their hard work and report. A big thanks also to Peter Frank for all his photography skills.

The Pope Benedict XVI Award; This award was presented to our Council for an increase of 5% or more in all our State Charity Campaigns along with receiving all the points for the State Activities. A big thanks to everyone for your generosity and time. A huge Thank You to Kevin Cornelius for submitting all the state reports.

James Bailey, PGK received award

Congratulations to Brother James Bailey, Past Grand Knight, who received his 500 hour pin on June 2, 2010 at the Louis Stokes VA Medical Center Brecksville Division. This award was presented to Jim by Susan Hudec, Associate Clinical Director. Volunteering does have its rewards. A lunch, the fellowship with others and the recognition of his service, followed the awards ceremony.
