Grand Knight's Report

Grand Knight Kevin Cornelius

Brother Knights and Families,

So we took the family on vacation to sunny Florida this month, and as we are walking toward St. Petersburg pier, I look up, and notice a familiar figure. Yes, this statue of Christopher Columbus was prominently placed by council 2105 of St. Petersburg right at the beginning of the pier entrance!

It just goes to show you how many places the Knights have an impact. Sometimes it is more visible at an event or like this beautiful statue. Other times, however, it may be behind the scenes, not drawing attention to ourselves, but just doing what God asks us to do by lending a hand helping others.

Either way, I consider it a blessing to be called by God to help others, proclaim our faith, and enjoy the fraternal benefits of being a Knight.

Last month we had a wonderful Family Picnic, our Installation of Officers, and even attended a Lake Eire crushers game! A special thanks to all the Brother Knights who helped make these events so successful. (Including, but not limited too, District Deputy John Brown, PGK Bill Goellner, PGK Henry Kleinhenz, PGN Kevin Sheehan, PGK Gene Hanzely, John Lieb, Don Lloyd Mark Cunningham, and many others)

With the ending of summer season, we are “ramping up” our 2010-2011 year. Please keep going to the web site (www.kofc4731.org) for future news. There are many opportunities in the fall to get involved, and I personally ask you to step up and help.

Next month, I will be addressing the need to electronically send the Narrator whenever possible. If you have an email address, please let us know so we can reduce the annual cost of mailings. If you don't have e-mail, please don't worry. We will still mail it if necessary.

Vivat Jesus!
Kevin Cornelius
Grand Knight
