COUNCIL BLOOPER TEAM

First scheduled game will be held on Wednesday, June 13th at North Olmsted Park.

GRAND KNIGHT ACE SPAKOWSKI SAYS

My heartfelt thanks to all who contributed to the accomplishments of this successful year of North Olmsted Council No. 4731. This year has been marked by more participation in more activities by more Brothers, and it is this feeling of both participation and cooperation that has been the character of our council this year. Yes, we made mistakes and fell short of certain goals, but the accomplishments more than speak for themselves. These achievements resulted from the combined efforts of many faithful Brothers and I shall but try to mention all of them. Msgr. Korab has been most gracious to our council and we deeply appreciate his sincere interests in our programs.

CHAPLAIN Fr. Wagner has rekindled spiritual interest in our council by his refreshing talks and by spearheading the new Catholic indoctrination program.

DEPUTY GRAND KNIGHT Ben Lyons by his patience and drive molded our First Degree team to its best year. Advanced planning, plus many jobs kept Ben running all year.

CHANCELLOR Bill Bonner headed our best State Youth campaign to date. His drive and hard work carried us through. Bill is a member of the degree team, and blooper ball team.

WARDEN Edw. Majeros was Mr. Dependable in charge of council properties. Also played his counterpart on the degree team.

RECORDER Jack Montean did an excellent job this year with the minutes of both the council and officers meetings as well as prompt attention to council correspondence.

LECTURER Fred Heidering added enjoyment and excitement to our meetings with his entertaining programs and prizes. We also appreciated the refreshments throughout the year.

FINANCIAL SECRETARY John Martin completed three years of outstanding work on the accounts of our council. In addition, his attendance record at meetings and degrees is unsurpassed.

TREASURER Erw. Franczak together with John kept our finances both current and in order - a big job well done. Ed also writes all the council's checks.

INSIDE GUARD Matt Weidner, in addition to his council post, was responsible for the clean hall after all the meetings. Matt made a beautiful badge case and is on the degree team.

OUTSIDE GUARD Joe Arnold will be long remembered for his enthusiasm during the State Youth drive, which helped him take all the prizes.

TRUSTEE Bill Beyer has been a hard working Trustee all year, the Conservation chairman, and a driving force in the State Youth campaign. We'll remember Bill for his help and cooperation.

TRUSTEE Pat Gareau as one of the district leaders helped push State Youth over the top.

TRUSTEE Joe Gioroso for his efforts on the Welcome Home Brother campaign, which he headed.

GENERAL PROGRAM CHAIRMAN Hugh Patton for coordinating the activities of the six point Chairman.

COUNCIL ACTIVITY CHAIRMAN Bill Kacvinsky for the best social calendar in our history.

FRATERNAL ACTIVITY CHAIRMAN Ray Lieb for a well balanced program throughout the year.

CATHOLIC ACTIVITY CHAIRMAN Ray Sara for well planned Communion turnouts and winter retreat.

MEMBERSHIP-INSURANCE CHAIRMAN Ed Mesher for his promotional ideas, which were real gems.

LEGISLATIVE CHAIRMAN Henry Kleinhenz who reactivated our Squires Circle.

PHOTOGRAPHER Joe Lutz, the result of whose efforts are evidenced in our Historians book.

INSURANCE AGENT Vic Cramer for his efforts in our behalf and for gifts donated to our council.

ISABELLA GUILD for their cooperation and help extended to our council.

In closing may I say that the past year has been a rich one for me. My most rewarding experiences have come from the close associations with the many hard working, self-sacrificing, devoted Brother Knights who worked untingly for the success of our council.

RETIREMENT The next issue No. 25, will be the last paper your Editor, Milan Penyin will edit and publish. The term of office will have expired and your new officer I am sure, will continue the Narrator and make improvement.

It seems like only yesterday, that GK Ace Spakowski when elected in June, 1961, presented me with a challenge - to prepare and publish a council paper for the first meeting in July, 1961, with only 10 days notice.

Publishing the first issues of the paper with the help of Don Kane, John Freeborn and Dick Kusak, was both refreshing and stimulating. Associate Editor, Dick Kusak is certainly to be complimented for his diligence and efforts on behalf of The Narrator and deserves a vote of thanks. It would be no editorial staff.

Thanks and grateful appreciation is extended to Grand Knight Ace Spakowski for his help and confidence, to General Program Chairman Hugh Patton, the six point Chairman, committee Chairman and officers, for their help and cooperation. Thanks are also extended to the Isabella Guild for the fine articles they submitted during my tenure in office.

The new Editor and his staff I am sure, will do a good job and make The Narrator a paper for the membership, maintaining only the highest standards. In the words of General McArthur - "Old soldiers never die - they just fade away".
