KNIGHTS OF THE DIAMOND

Despite blind umpires, broken bats, and irrigation ditches in the infield, our Council's entry in the North Olmsted Slow Pitch League, thundered to a 1 won and 9 loss sea-son. They made many friends for us by practicing our Order's prime virtue - CHARITY. They gave the games away? We owe them all a hearty Bravo for carrying our colors in this community endeavor.

We can be certain that they portrayed to all the image of the K. C., and next year we hope to increase the win column, and have a greater participation by our membership.

SICK CALL

G. K. Spakowski presided at our First meeting in Sept., with his arm in a beautiful white sling. A broken shoulder blade, resulting from a fall. A mis-step?

Bro. Glorioso is recuperating from a serious injury sustained in an auto accident.

Bro. Aquino is recovering from a serious leg operation, however he is again hospitalized.

Bro. Vespoli entered the hospital on Sept. 11th.

In our Charity let's remember our Bros. in our prayers and ask God for his blessing.

TRUSTEES CORNER

Bros., we take this opportunity to commend you on the prompt manner in which your dues and/or insurance payments are being made, to our Financial Secretary.

Without financial support, we could not act in a manner befitting our Council, which rates among the top in the State.

Realizing the importance of sufficient funds being available to operate under the provisions of our constitution, we solicit your continued promptness.

The Trustees have the 1961-1962 budget prepared and copies will be available for our meeting on Wednesday, Sept. 20. As Key Officers in your Council, the Trustees will continue serving you and be ever alert in regard to financial matters.

CONGRATULATIONS

To Phil Barzen for winning and collecting his reward for naming our council paper.

To Mrs. Franczak, for presenting Bro. Edw. with a 7 lb. baby boy on August 25th.

To Bro. Shandor who was appointed Membership Chairman of Bishop O'Reilly General Assembly.

STATE YOUTH CAMPAIGN

By now, the 1961 State Youth Campaign should be in high gear and each of you asking your Team Captain for more books.

This campaign is designed with the Council in mind. Let's resolve at this time, with our conscience as a guide, to do our utmost to make this campaign the most successful of all our efforts during the 1961-1962 year.

The campaign is divided into 3 Phases:

- Phase 1 — Sept. 8 to Oct. 9.
- Phase 2 — Oct. 10 to Nov. 13.
- Phase 3 — Nov. 14 to Dec. 2.

Our council receives the greatest benefits from Phase 1 - and we ask each Bro. for his fullest cooperation and early effort.

Awards to membership are as follows:

- Phase 1 — 3 books — Credit 1 mo. dues.
- Phase 1 — 10 books — Credit 6 mos. dues, and an opportunity on a $25. Savings Bond.
- Phase 1 — 10 books during the 3 Phases — Credit 3 months dues.

- Top member in each one of the three Phases (10 books to qualify) $10. Gift Certificate.
- Top member for the entire campaign, (25 books to qualify) $50. Savings Bond.
- Second high member for the entire campaign (15 books to qualify) $25. Savings Bond.

The sixth (6th) page of each book is free. Please do not mutilate the books.

If any brother has not received his books or desires additional information, please contact your State Youth Chairman, William J. Bonner, SP 7-1533 or a division leader.

Joe Arnold — SP 7-0904
Pat Gareau — SP 7-0181
Bill Beyer — SP 7-3512

We have asked for God's Blessing, and now we ask for your wholehearted support.

CHOICE TID BITS

A fishing rod is a stick with a hook at one end and a fool at the other.

A fool always finds one still more foolish to admire him.
