PAST GRAND KNIGHT'S TESTIMONIAL DINNER-DANCE

The banquet in honor of PGK Beyer was another example of our council's outstanding social events, thanks to the efforts and abilities of Bros. Jacob, Kacvinsky and their committee.

A sumptuous feast of prime rib of beef and all the trimmings was enjoyed by every one of the 132 persons in attendance.

The Master of Ceremonies was PGK Pat Gareau, who, in addition to introductions and witticisms, persisted in addressing the "Ladies and Gentlemen of the Jury."

PGK Beyer was presented with a PGK pin, a scroll & a handsome Hamilton wrist watch. (Maybe you'll be on time for meetings now Bill). He thanked everyone in his speech.

The main speaker of the evening was our Chaplain, Fr. Joseph Wagner, who spoke on "Moral Responsibilities & Materialism vs. Spiritualism."

At the end of the formalities the Slav Petroff Orchestra took over till the wee hours of the morning. A good time was had by all.

NEWS FROM THE LADIES

Bros. the Isabella Guild has started a drive to equip the kitchen of our proposed club-rooms. They have demonstrated to us their

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE RULE

8. Point of Order - A possible violation in parliamentary procedure can be checked by rising to a "point of order". The chair is obliged to recognize you and to pass on your inquiry.
9. Orders of the Day - When the meeting goes off on a tangent and does not follow the agenda or the order of business, you may remind the chairman of this by calling for "orders of the day".

confidence in our ability to throw up four walls and a ceiling to house their worthy contribution.

STATE YOUTH CAMPAIGN DEADLINE - PHASE ONE

It's up to us - The next meeting (Oct. 4th) is the day for us to make our first returns of this year's campaign. This Phase One deadline will reap the greatest return. MAKE THAT SPECIAL EFFORT TO DISPOSE OF YOUR BOOKS. Make your returns to your captain or bring them to this meeting. There is more to offer this year than in any other, more for you and the donor, and with the picture of our own Club rooms in the background it certainly is worthy of your whole-hearted effort and support.

To ensure coverage and maximum results, we urge all captains to contact their team members and we urge all division leaders to prime the pump by staying in contact with their captains.

As an added inducement, please refer to the prize list published in the last issue of the Narrator.

To qualify for the BIG 20 which is a separate drawing on a new car, members of our council will receive one free chance for every three (3) books disposed of, guaranteeing some Knight a new car.

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS

It's the same old story of book selling, giving a little extra effort, but this can mean a great step forward in our plans for the future. We do not ask our membership to sell anything else, OTHER THAN THIS DRIVE ONCE A YEAR. Let's all put our backs into it.

HALLOWEEN COSTUME DANCE

Click your heels at the Olmsted Lodge, 26910 Cook Rd., Olmsted Falls, Ohio, Friday, October 27.

For $3.00 a couple, we'll haunt you from 9 to 1 P. M. There's just one condition, come in costume or pick up a mask at the door.

Soooo round up your favorite group of friends and enjoy a lot of fun. We've got a reputation for throwing good dances and this will be an apple dunker.

SICK CALL

Trustee Joe Gioriso is back at meetings. Bro. Jim Warner is confined to his home. Bro. Sam Aquino is recuperating from an operation.

Bro. Mike Vespoli is home from the hospital. In our Charity let's remember our Bros. in our prayers and ask God for His Blessing.

This column would not be complete without mention of an act of Charity by Bros. Lieb, Zsigo, Weidner, and G.K. Spakowski. These true Knights visited Bro. Sam Aquino and not only brought him comfort but cut the grass and hedges as well. Our hats are off to these Bros.

OPEN HOUSE

Don't be selfish. When you possess a good thing be considerate of others and invite them to partake of it. This is Charity, this is our duty as Knights of Columbus. Invite a friend, that you deem worthy to join our Order, to our Open House, Sunday, October 1. The place is St. Richard's Auditorium at 2:00 P.M.

A fine program is planned by our Membership Chairman, Ed Mesker, who has a good supply of membership blanks to accommodate the crowd. All members are urged to attend this Open House, so bring a friend and start him along the Road of Columbianism.

BLOOD BANK

If you don't have a cold or a rosy red rash, Are healthy and cheerful with limbs like an ash,
We urge you to spill your blood, let's be frank
And join your Bros. in building our Bank.

BOWLERS BEWARE

We wish to put all K of C Keglers on notice that high scores, splits and tid bits are going to be featured in the Narrator. VOTCH DAT HEADPIN.
Ladies - how about some gutter-ball gossip for the coming editions? ? ? ?

SHORT SNORTS

Congratulations to Bro. R. Sasena on the birth of a son. That's one girl and four boys now. Bet those corks will pop now!
Editor Milan Penyin is vacationing from his regular vacation at New York Central. 10-13.

Our Chaplain, Fr. Wagner is leaving for Rome October 4th. Could be a change in the Hierarchy? ? The best wishes of the council go with you on your Pilgrimage to Mecca.
