GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

As the autumn leaves reach their fall splendor, we are shocked into the realization that summer has definitely slipped by, but the fall season has been enriched with another complete council program. Already you have gained added Graces, by participating in the Quarterly Communion last Sunday and enjoyed yourselves at the superb Halloween Party.

Did YOU attend these council activities? Perhaps you didn't realize that all the council activities are planned and carried out with EVERYONE of our Brother Knights in mind. Only by your active support of all activities, can the hard working committees men judge their efforts and continue to plan successful future programs. Thus PARTICIPATION spells SUCCESS for our council and SATISFACTION for you. Now is the time for YOU to reap the many spiritual and temporal benefits available only to Brother Knights. The council needs YOU and depends on YOU for its vitality.

ISABELLA GULLD

You are again reminded of the card party on November 18th at N. O. Community Cabin. Plan to attend with your friends and neighbors.

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE RULE

11. Motion to Limit Debate - To prevent a discussion from dragging on endlessly, you can make a motion to (a) limit each speaker's time, (b) Limit the number of speakers, (c) Limit the overall time of debate (d) close debate at a set time and take a vote (provided a motion of higher rank has not been made)

October 10th will be a memorable day for Mrs. Patricia Beaune. Patricia won the Dorothy Fuldheim orchid when the Guild attended the One O'Clock Club affair. Congratulations, for a well earned prize.

Our bowling league is in its seventh week. High individual game league leader is Beverly Kessler with a 191. Congratulations. Two of our most improved bowlers are Myrtle Zarr and Tina Murtha. Keep it up.

Good Luck and Happy Rolling to all bowlers.

Happy Birthday to LaVerne Wilkins, Oct. 11th and Catherine Gareau on Oct. 24th.

Publicity Chairman, Mrs. Vlad advises that the program on November 16th, will be cake decorating by Mrs. Nellie Vespoli.

Speedy recovery to Mrs. Mary Brehm, who is recovering from a broken ankle.

Happy Birthday to Rose Sharkin on Oct. 29th.

Contact Mrs. Eileen Griffin at SP 7-0907, for tickets for card party Nov. 18th, or they may be purchased at the door.

Don't forget December 21st - plans are underway for a Good Feed, Fun and Entertainment, sponsored jointly by the Isabella Guild and our Council No. 4731.

MEMBERSHIP INSURANCE

Chairman Ed Mesker says - Brothers, it is the duty of each of us to help increase the membership of our council. If you know of any Catholic gentleman who is not a member of the Knights of Columbus, please don't be bashful about asking him to join. Or if you wish, submit his name to the Membership Committee and they will make the contact. Our quota for the current year is 20 Associates and 10 Insurance members.

Transfers do not count towards our quota and we must make up for suspended members. Initiation fees are $10., plus $4.50 for the first three months dues. This is payable by the candidate before he makes his First Degree. Any candidate under 26 years of age, must come in as an Insurance Member.

On Sunday, November 19th, a First Degree honoring his Grace, Archbishop Edward F. Hoban, will start with the 9:00 A. M. Mass at St. John's Cathedral, followed by a breakfast at Hotel Carter after which the First Degree will be conferred.

Cost of breakfast is $2.00 and tickets are available through GK Ace Spakowski, and M-I Chairman Edward Mesker. It is certainly hoped that our council will make a good showing, with both members and candidates.

YOUTH ACTIVITY

Your new Youth Activity Chairman is Henry F. Kleinhenz, who was appointed to succeed Dick Deitrich, when he was recalled to the service. Brother Deitrich is with the 308th Combat Engineers at Fort Meade, Maryland, and has another year to go.

GOOD LUCK to both in their new venture.

VISITOR

It was indeed a most welcome sight and a pleasure to all, to again greet Bro. Dick Tayfel, Jr., at our meeting. Bro. Tayfel is home on furlough from the Air Corps, and of all things to hear - he likes the service.

DUES ARE DUE

Have you paid yours? Why not check.

NOVEMBER 7th

Don't forget to get out and vote. This is our most precious and inalienable right, under our form of government.

DRAWING

Bro. Mike Vespoli won the drawing on Oct. 4th and Bro. Robt. Brihan won the drawing on Oct. 18th. However, since neither of the Bros. were present at the meeting, the prize will be added to the drawing scheduled for our Nov. 1st meeting.

It can pay to attend council meetings.

STATE YOUTH CAMPAIGN

Chairman Bill Bonner says - out of more than 200 members, returns were only made by 86 members during the First Phase of the campaign, which ended Oct. 9th.

The Second Phase ends on Nov. 13th, and in order to reap our just rewards, the rest of the memberships 142 brothers are urged to turn in at last three books of stubs and proceeds to their Team Captain or to Chmn. Bill Bonner. As you know, the proceeds from this campaign are used for a most worthy and charitable cause - our Catholic Youth. With charity in our hearts, this campaign cannot fail - if each one does his part. Let's give it the good old college try and go over the top.

Chairman Bill Bonner advises 300 books were turned in and wishes to thank these members for their cooperation and efforts.

The following Bros. turned in 10 books or more during the First Phase.

|---------------|------------|
| Joe Arnold | — 21 Books |
| Dan Griffin | — 10 " |
| Norm Mlady | — 14 " |
| Al Swinglish | — 12 " |

| Henry Skriski | — 13 " |
| Pat Gareau | — 10 " |
| Ed. Zarr, Sr. | — 10 " |
| Bill Bonner | — 10 " |

Bro. Joe Arnold being high man won the Gift Certificate. Congratulations Joe.

All books and returns for the Second Phase, ending Nov. 13th, should be turned in to your Team Captain by November 12th. If your Team Captain does not contact you, turn the tables, call him.

The presentation and announcement of the final results and awards will take place at our council meeting, Wednesday, Dec. 6th.
