NEWS OF OFFICERS AND COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN

All organizations, to be successful, must have a head man. In our Council he is known as the Grand Knight. He is elected by our Council members annually.

The Grand Knight's duties are too numerous to outline here. He is responsible for the overall welfare of our Council.

Remember, our Council is a new Council. The Past Grand Knights just three and our present Grand Knight. We were fortunate to have men that took this important office and worked for you and the rest of the Council members.

FIRST DEGREE

Our Council Degree Team held a First Degree at St. Richard's Hall on Monday Night, October 29.

It was performed to perfection, just like they were doing this all their lives instead of a year. Our Grand Knight spent a lot of his time on this degree, so did the team. This team should give the rest of the teams a good run when they compete for honors later on. Good luck, it is a pleasure to watch them. More members should attend these degrees and give the team some moral support. It would be worth your time to see for yourself what your degree team is like.

Two Past Grand Knights took part, so you see they continue to be active in our Council. The candidates were as follows:
Thomas Kovach, Andrew Radai, from N. Olmsted Council; George A. Ferrito, Queen of Peace Council; Edward P. Smith, John T. Gibbons, West Park Council.

There will be a 2nd Degree November 8 at West Park Council, West 130, just south of Lorain Avenue, at 8:30 P.M.

After the degree I was talking to a visiting Grand Knight from West Park, he said he thought our own robes were beautiful and the degree team was real fine. That was a very nice compliment, coming from a Grand Knight of such a large council of several thousand members. He mentioned about the membership drive N. Olmsted is conducting. Please get that member soon, we need them now. One thing he didn't mention was the Choir. Maybe because he helped us out. The only comment was from Father Wagner, he said we need more practice—I wonder how he meant that. I think I know.

PAST GRAND KNIGHT'S DINNER

The dinner in honor of P.G.K. Ace Spakowski was well attended. The dinner of Prime Roast of Beef and all the trimmings was just fine and plenty of everything.

John Montean was Toastmaster.

Our Chaplain, Fr. Joseph Wagner, gave a timely talk with praise to our host P.G.K. and about some of the good deeds of the Knights of Columbus.

Many thanks to Ed. Kimmick and his committee for their efforts and a fine and enjoyable evening that everyone that attended had.

TWO NEW K.C. ROAD SIGNS

We have our new K.C. signs up at the County Line just east of the Ohio Turnpike, and the other at the city's line on Brookpark Road. Brother Wm. Jacob had his sign painter from Woolworth's print the time of Masses at St. Richard's on the panels under the signs. Thanks for doing this for the Council without any expense to us.

NEW ARRIVAL

Bro. Don Kane was a proud father of a fine new daughter. Word was said that Don took two weeks off to help wash diapers.

STATE YOUTH CAMPAIGN

Each member received three books of tickets, the Council has to sell 669 books to be in the running. This is 116 books over last year, so you see everyone has to do his part, or else we will not be recognized by the State Committee. Please do as much for this worthy cause. Get your returns to your Captain or Joe Arnold as soon as you can. More tickets available if you need more.

On Saturday, October 27, Wm. Jacob and wife and several of their friends took off for Pittsburgh to see the Browns and Pittsburgh Steelers football game.

They went to the hotel where they had reservations, as I could piece these instances together from what Jacob was telling several fellows and myself about what happened in Pittsburgh.

Before he got up to the reservation desk, someone asked his name, where he was from, and did he have his room reservation yet. He tried to tell this person, but they took them under their wing and pinned some kind of Convention buttons on them. That entitled them to free entertainment and refreshments. I guess they got to the game all right.

There were automatic elevators and one no one wanted to get on. Bill will have to tell you why. They said a good time was had by all. John Spadator and wife was one of the couples with them. John belongs to our Assembly.

That is the high lights of what happened. I forgot to tell you it was a Jewish Conversion.

FREE — FOR MEMBERS

WHO ATTEND MEETINGS

Light lunch will be served at the meetings from time to time. If this proves satisfactory it will become a feature from now on. Please let us know how you like this arrangement. Meetings are short and snappy. Why not turn out and see for yourself.

A night out and see what the K.C. offers you and what you can do for your K.C.

FACTS ABOUT ADVERTISING

IN OUR COUNCIL PAPER

These people are our friends—please remember them. When you buy let them know you appreciate their kind deed and consideration of us. We are going to run a series on the type of business they are in, and what they have to sell. The first one is in this issue.

Coming — THE NARRATOR will have a story of the history of the Soundring Catholic Churches soon.

J.A.F.

This is the first article about our advertisers. There will be one each issue.

WANTED

Do you know any member of our K.C. that can play the piano or organ? Our K.C. Choir needs someone that could help them out. If anyone knows such a person be sure and let G. S. Zisigo know. We need one for the de-grees.

POST HALLOWEEN COSTUME DANCE

It will be at the Olmsted Lodge again this year, 26910 Cook Road, Olmsted Falls on Friday, November 9. Come in costume—if not—pick up a mask at the door. The price of the dance is $1.50 a person or $3.00 a couple. We have a reputation for holding good dances and this one you should attend and see for yourself.

Ted Mack has the tickets Call him at 235-3278.

THINGS TO KNOW . . .

When is the last time you looked at your insurance policies? Many of you have married, had children and many other changes have probably occurred since that time. Many times I find, that although the people are positive their insurance is in order, they have left their wives and children out of their estate by forgetting to have the beneficiary changed after their marriage or birth of children.

To have your wife as the only beneficiary is not sufficient, you should also have a contingent beneficiary, i.e., parents, children, etc. A few minutes now could mean the difference between immediate payment of claims or a long drawn out settlement decided by a court of law. Further information can be obtained by calling CL. 2-5416.
