GRAND KNIGHTS MESSAGE

The first quarter of the current council year is over and a progress report is in order. What has the council accomplished?

1. We have progressed a long way toward our goal of more Unity and Fraternity. Spirit is excellent and getting better; cooperation very gratifying; and interest in true Columbianism has been re-kindled in many.

2. We have been able to put some money into our Kay Cee Club Building Fund.

3. There have been two successful social affairs and a civic function with a well-planned program for the balance of the year.

What remains to be accomplished?

1. We are pleased to see many members at the meetings and social affairs, members we haven't seen for a long time. However, we would like to see more men attend the meetings. If for one reason or another you cannot attend, please feel free to offer your criticism, suggestions or comments. Any idea worth thinking about is deserving of attention. You won't

BLOOD BANK

Members are reminded that Blood Bank cards are good for one year. If you have any cards that are about to expire, turn them over to Bro. Adam Hesser (BE 4-6953), Blood Bank Chairman, so that he can see to it that they are used, rather than lost thru expiration. Please check your cards now.

YOUTH ACTIVITY

Chairman Paul Leary reports that the program is under way and plans are being finalized. The first event will be the annual Sports Night dinner for young football players. The event will again be headed by Frank Krecic, who will report the date and details in the next issue of the Narrator.

In December we will have our annual Christmas Party for the kiddies. Bill Kacvinsky will chairman this event.

ILL LIST

Bro. John Freeborn is out of the hospital and is recuperating at home. Let us remember John in our prayers.

CLAMBAKE REPORT

"Our 1963 K of C Clambake was a huge success with over 170 people enjoying free beer and delicious bakes. The entire affair was a smooth operation made possible only by the large number of Brothers who pitched in and worked. Of course, the lion's share of the credit goes to our chefs, Babe Denk and Hank Kleinhenz, who planned the menu and then spent all day Saturday cooking. Clams were cleaned and bagged the night before by Hank, Ted Mack and Ace Spakowski. Jack Shandor and Dick Kusak earned their chef's hats by their hard work in the kitchen.

Ed Majoros' serving committee did an excellent job in keeping the line moving smoothly. Helping Ed, both on the floor and in the kitchen, were Mar Weidner, Henry Skitzki, Ray Sara, Wayne MacPherson, and Joe Reznik. A note on salt distribution; all was going well until several people carried off the entire supply of individual packets for their own use!

A very big thanks to Frank Krecic for a well organized bar. Ted Mack and Joe Corrigan helped Frank pass out over 600 glasses of free beer. That's some sort of a record for us!! Bill Jacobs furnished the ice cubes for your drinks. Music during the dinner and the dance was furnished by Gabe Zisigo and his tape equipment. Hugh Patton and Milan Penyin joined talents on publicity and signs.

The cleanup is the hard and dirty job that many shun, but not our Brothers. Late Saturday night and Sunday noon found our workers singing at their tasks. A very big thank you to Hank Kleinhenz, Ed. Kajoros, Bill Bonner, Gabe Zisigo, Joe Kucharik, and Fred Heierding. Ben Lyons and Jim McShane helped clear the mess up on Saturday night.

A thank you to Nick Calviri for helping at the door. Also not forgotten are the many Brothers who sold tickets that made this clambake a financial success. Finally, I want to thank everyone who had any part in this clambake (whether a worker, booster, or attendee). It was a real pleasure to have had a part in this successful event."

Ace Spakowski, Chairman
