COUNCIL MEMBERS URGE TO ATTEND STATE CONVENTION MAY 22-23

FINANCIAL SECRETARY POST OPEN AS MACPHERSON RESIGNS

CLEVELAND HOSTS CONVENTION

Attention, all officers, members, and their ladies!

The council has taken a hospitality suite at the Sheraton-Cleveland Hotel for the 66th annual State Convention of the Knights of Columbus.

Remember, it will be "open house" on the evenings of Friday, May 21 and Saturday, May 22. Plan to come on downtown for this.

We are sorry we can't tell you the room number. We don't know for sure what it will be, so simply check at the desk.

SOFTBALL SEASON TO BEGIN

All those interested in participating in softball this season on the council team should begin hibernating up and be prepared for try-outs in the near future.

DGK Ted Mack has sounded the call for candidates as we again plan to field a team to represent us in the North Olmsted Recreation League. It has been reliably reported that there are a number of positions open. This is due to the fact that a number of "athletes" are holding out for a salary increase, which has been turned down by the Board of Trustees and major stockholders. Included among the hold-outs is Don Weindorf, our leading slugger, who refuses to report from Denver. It is understood that Don was in town last week to discuss salary with Ted Mack, but returned to the "Mile-High City" in the hope of being traded. In his absence, it is hoped that we can draw from the new members the nucleus of a strong club.

As a matter of fact, players are expected to play for nothing . . . considering this activity to be in the name of Charity and Fraternity. We will work on the Unity angle, hoping to field a team worthy of our name.

So, please give Ted Mack a call at 235-3278 and come out and have some fun.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Table with 2 columns: Event Name and Date. Includes Regular Meeting (May 19), Special KC Club Meeting (May 22), State Convention (May 23), Regular Meeting (June 2), Election of Officers (June 2), Annual Picnic (June 13), Cedar Point Outing (June 25, 26, 27), Summer Festival (July 30, 31), and Deadline for Next Issue (May 26).

SPECIAL K C CLUB MEETING SET

In order to handle a request from the Summer Festival Committee for operating funds, the KC Club Officers have called a special meeting to follow the regular council meeting on May 19.

Since our by-laws regulate the amount of expenditures, the membership will be asked to consider the request for use of Club funds. This is in accordance with Article XV of regulations which deals with expenditure of funds in excess of $300.00.

This special meeting, according to KC Club Secretary Jay Ellis, is called for by Article I of the Code of Regulations as ordered by the Board of Trustees at their regular meeting held on May 3, 1965.

COUNCIL RAMBLINGS

We are sorry we could not publish more information on several recent events. These came up more or less at the last minute and after the Narrator went to press. . . . A thanks to Brunswick Council 2nd Degree Team for accommodating us on Friday, May 14th, by exemplifying the Second Degree at our hall. . . . Thanks to District Deputy, Robert Miller, for arranging such a fine Major Degree in the Brunswick Council Chambers on Sunday, May 16. . . . more on this later. . . . We're wondering if Brother Don Weindorf has become used to the harried air since his transfer to Denver? . . . Harry Regan's name was drawn for attendance prize at last meeting. Since he was absent, the award increases to $9.00. . . . It was heard that the Isabella Guild had a recent election. It would be nice to hear from them.

FINANCIAL SECRETARY POST OPEN

With the resignation of Wayne MacPherson from the post of Financial Secretary to be effective on or about July 1, this job will be open to an interested member of the council. If a member feels he can handle the assignment, he should call the Grand Knight or any of the Trustees for details.

To qualify, a member must be an insurance member. This is the only paid position in the Knights of Columbus council setup.

ANNUAL COUNCIL PICNIC SCHEDULED

The warm, beautiful weather we have been enjoying is a reminder to all of us that this is the time to make plans for our annual council picnic.

The date has been set, and it is hoped that June 13 will find the usual fine turnout on hand.

Council Activity Chairman, Anthony W. Havelka and his committee will be working hard as usual in planning for a good time of fun. Prizes, games and general recreation will be enjoyed. More information in the next issue.

COUNCIL WELCOMES NEW MEMBERS

The officers and members of Council 4731 extend a hearty welcome to the following men who have recently come into the council through initiations, transfers, and re-admissions. Vincent Addaddo, Henry S. Kobak, Leon Lasky, George J. Lazelle, Arthur Leach, Louis A. Luckmeier, Thomas M. Quinn, Todd P. Ruppel, John R. Seman, Carmine Spagnoletti, Charles S. Stephens, Donald M. Sullivan, Harold J. Vonderau, Charles A. Werner, and Thomas H. Wolf.

CEDAR POINT OUTING SET

For the benefit of those who missed the Buckeye Bulletin writeup, on the annual Knights of Columbus Ohio State Council Family Outing to be held at Cedar Point on June 25, 26, and 27, we are reprinting in part, the article appearing in the May issue of the Buckeye Bulletin, by Karl Bruggerman, Family Outing Chairman.

"Your Outing Committee" would like to extend a personal invitation to all members in Ohio to come to the Outing for three days of fun in the sun.

There are scheduled events for everybody: a Teenage Coke-tail Party, a beach-party for the young ones, a get-together party and dance one evening, and a Lunu Party another evening for everybody. A book of midway ride tickets will be given to every child under 21 years of age.

I have furnished your Grand Knight with a colorful poster listing my name, address and phone number. For your convenience here it is again:

Karl P. Bruggerman 39 Rye Beach Road Huron, Ohio 44839 Phone: (419) 433-3578

There are plenty of good hotel rooms available but you should ACF NOW. Phone or write to me and I will be happy to handle the details of your reservation. The cost is low and within the reach of all.

$100.00-A-MONTH DRIVE A SUCCESS

We are most happy to report that our Council participation in the recent drawing was a financial success. As a result, we were able to put $331.00 into our treasury. . . . no small sum considering the fact that only 24 members voluntarily made this possible.

An extra special thanks goes to Joe Kueharik who sold 28 books; Dave Wolfe, with 15 books; Ted Mack, with 10 books; Dick Kusak with 9 books sold; Jim Wilkins and Ralph Vollmer, each with six books; Bob Gomola and Len Emery, with five books each.

Others doing a fine job were Henry Kleinhenn, Nick Calvitti, Ace Spakowski, Joe Arnold, Wayne MacPherson, Paul Leary, Ed Mayors, John Freeborn, John Seman, Matt Weidner, Joe Reznik, George Gross, George Lazelle, Dick Miller, and Fran Murray.

Last year we made $196.00. So, with a little extra effort we were able to show a substantial increase.
