STATE YOUTH DRIVE - MEMORIAL SERVICE

BENEFIT DINNER-DANCE

THIRD DEGREE

STATE YOUTH DRIVE

MEMORIAL SERVICE

Throughout the year you may have been asked to help on a Council project. Due to other commitments you may have found it necessary to refuse additional responsibilities. Our jobs and family obligations should come first. No one expects a fellow member to neglect his work or family to help chairman a dance or other Council project.

However at the present time each and every member is being given the chance to show that he has an interest in the Knights of Columbus. Starting October 25th, the second phase of the State Youth Drive began. In the first phase we barely made our goal. This is difficult to understand when the quota is one book per member.

Each member received three books of tickets to sell. I do not feel that this is asking too much of any man. Our Council has always prided itself in the work we have been able to do for the children of our community. In past years we have given scholarships, backed Little League ball teams, and have been able to show an active interest in local sports programs throughout the year. Don't let these programs falter because you did not do your part.

There is no more worthwhile project than aiding the youth of a community in creating activities that will help them to mature into useful citizens, citizens that we can point to with pride. They have to take up where we leave off. Let us set an example and show our children that we have not forgotten them, that we are interested in seeing that they have programmed activities.

Tonight reach into that desk drawer, take out that State Youth envelope, and make up your mind to sell those tickets. It's not hard, give it a try!

THIRD DEGREE SCHEDULED

K. OF C. BOWLING TOURNAMENT

Each year the Knights of Columbus hold two bowling tournaments. One is a state tournament and the other a national. The State Tournament in 1966 will be held in Cleveland, Ohio. The National Tournament will be in Chicago, Illinois. The exact dates have not been set as to when our council will be bowling. These tournaments are open to all members in good standing. Anyone interested in entering, contact Ted Mack at 235-3278 for details as soon as possible.

CLAMBAKE REPORT

G.P.C. Hank Kleinbenz wishes to thank all who assisted at the Clambake and helped make it a success. Special thanks to chairman, G.K. Ted Mack and Bob Gomola, Jack Parker, Ralph Vollmer, Dick Kusak, and Ed Majors.
