MEMORIAL MASS AND SERVICE SET - GOMOLA RESIGNS

HARVEST DANCE REPORT

MEMORIAL SERVICE NOVEMBER 17

Our next meeting night November 17, we will hold our annual Memorial Service beginning at 9:00 P.M. in St. Richards Hall.

For the first time since the beginning of our organization, this ritual will be observed by someone other than a Knight of Columbus. All members are urged to bring their wives so that they may have the chance to observe this beautiful and impressive ceremony.

MEMORIAL MASS NOVEMBER 28

Once a year, we set aside one Sunday in November to remember our Brother Knights who have departed to the final reward. Each member should make an effort to attend this Mass and receive Holy Communion for the repose of the souls of these Brothers.

Our Catholic Activity Chairman John Seman, has made arrangements for a light breakfast following the Mass. Please mark the date on your calendar, 9:30 A.M. Mass, St. Richards Church, November 28, our annual Memorial Mass and Quarterly Communion.

GOMOLA RESIGNS AS WARDEN

Grand Knight Ted Mack read the letter of resignation from our council Warden Bob Gomola in which he stated that due to recent changes in his nature of business, he felt he would not have the time to properly fulfill the position of Warden.

Bob, one of the hardest workers in the council, was always available when help was needed. We are sorry to receive his resignation and realize this to be a real loss to our council. A person of Bob's caliber will be hard to replace.

HARVEST DANCE GREAT SUCCESS

Bouquets are due to Don Kane who served as chairman of the annual Harvest Dance. As a result of his efforts and promotion this affair was a great success.

An evening of dancing and socializing was enjoyed by all. Those who attended this well organized musical rhapsody are eagerly looking forward to another K. of C. social affair.

Part of the evenings program included the awarding of door prizes. The prizes were containers of liquid refreshment and were won by: Helen Bohland, Jack Butler, Charles Davis, Mrs. H. DeMarco, George Lazelle, Helen Klag, Joanne McNamara, J. Montean, Fran Murray, and A. Verost.

FREBORN REJOINS NARRATOR STAFF

Efforts are being made to put the Narrator back on a self supporting basis and relieve the council of an additional expense.

John Freeborn, who previously has held the position of Editor and Business Manager of our council paper, has once again offered his assistance so that we may keep the news of what is happening available to the members.

Any member interested in advertising in the Narrator or knows someone who might be interested, please contact John.

Let's make every effort to help keep the Narrator the valuable source of information it is.

STATE YOUTH

We are well into the second phase of our state youth drive. Time is slowly slipping away. Have you sold your three books yet? If not, let's make it a point to put them in our suit coat pocket in the morning and sell all three books by the end of the week.

Every division leader and captain should make an all out effort to get each person on their team to turn in their three books by the end of this week.

Remember, the campaign slogan for this year "More Drive in Sixty-Five." Let's put it to work.
