NEW FINANCIAL SECRETARY APPOINTED - EXPERIENCE NIGHT STATE CONVENTION - P.G.K. NITE

NEW FINANCIAL SECRETARY APPOINTED

Grand Knight Ted Mack announced the appointment of Brother John Parker as the Council's new Financial Secretary. The appointment follows the resignation of Brother Fran Murray, for business reasons.

The position of Financial Secretary is not elective, and the appointment is made by the Supreme Council in New Haven, Connecticut, after a review of applications. Brother Parker is well qualified to properly fill this demanding position.

His address is: 26925 Westwood Lane

Olmsted Falls, Ohio

235-2721

It is suggested that for the time being any dues payments be mailed to Brother Fran Murray until the necessary changes are made in the correspondence addresses. Please cooperate in the matter.

We offer our congratulations to Jack Parker and pledge our help.

To Fran Murray we say thanks for your fine work, and best of luck in your new venture.

COMING EVENTS

May 4th—EXPERIENCE NIGHT.

May 18th—Regular Meeting.

May 8th—Deadline for next Narrator. Committee Chairmen please send in any information you have that can be used in the Council publication.

PAST GRAND KNIGHTS' NITE

The Past Grand Knights of North Olmsted Council were presented ribboned jewels at the last meeting. These jewels are to be worn at all Knights of Columbus functions in recognition of the dedicated service and hard work these men have performed.

Grand Knight Ted Mack presented the jewels to:

P.G.K. Pat Gareau, our first Grand Knight who served from our Charter date through June, 1960.

P.G.K. Ace Spakowski, July, 1961 through June, 1962.

P.G.K. Ben Lyons, July, 1962 through June, 1963.

P.G.K. Bill Bonner, July, 1963 through June, 1965.

Absent was P.G.K. Bill Beyer (July, 1960 through June, 1961) who was unable to attend.

In addition to the jewels, each P.G.K. received a gold encrusted ash tray personally and appropriately marked. The ash trays were hand painted by Ben Lyons' aunt.

COUNCIL SPONSORS BASEBALL TEAM

The resolution presented in the last issue regarding the Council's support of a baseball team in the North Olmsted Summer League, was presented at the last regular meeting. Brother Clare Tyler, author of the resolution presented it to the assembled members. The resolution was voted on and accepted.

This is a very worthwhile project in itself. In addition, the team may provide members for our reactivated Columbian Squares and future members for this Council.

COUNCIL RAMBLINGS

A golf team is being formed consisting of several foursomes. We'll be playing every Thursday night (weather permitting) at Creekswood Golf Course. Tee off time is 6:00 P.M.

For further information, call Ray Hepner at 777-5932, if you are interested.

We'll be competing against Avon Council. See you there?

The Council ball team's manager(?) will be announcing shortly the pre-season practice for those interested in playing in the slow pitch league sponsored by the North Olmsted Recreation Department. Last year the team played better than .500 ball.

At our April 20th meeting, the Council was honored by the presence of Ohio Youth Chairman, Brother Ed Wallace. It's always a real pleasure to see Ed and hear his choice words concerning the Knights of Columbus. He is most heartily welcome at any time, and we enjoy his comments which are laced with humor.

In attendance at the last meeting were new Brother Knights, Ron Daniels and Joe Polonye. Ron transferred in from Cleveland Council No. 733, and Joe was initiated on April 14th, taking his first and second and then his Major Degree on April 17th. Welcome Brothers, and may we see you often.

Question? Who has the Council's portable P. A. system?

Brother Art Suroski's name was drawn for the $9.00 attendance prize. He wasn't there — sorry about that chief. Next meeting the prize is $12.00.

Ed Zam, Jr., won a record $10.75 in the 50-50 Split Club drawing.

We hear that the Cadillac dealers of Detroit are getting together and raffling off a Catholic Church—that's a joke Brothers.

Sorry the Narrator is a rather abbreviated this time, but we can't print news we don't receive.
