MEMBERS TO HONOR COUNCIL CHAPLAIN

REUNION DANCE A SMASHING SUCCESS

CHAPLAIN'S NIGHT

Every Council is expected to set one meeting aside during the year to honor its Chaplain. This is one way we can say thanks to the Clergy.

North Olmsted Council will so honor our great and good Chaplain, Father Wagner, at the Regular Meeting on February 1st. As far as our Council is concerned, this very special night is not simply a matter of doing so because someone suggested that we do so. We honor and respect Father Wagner because these many years he has not been merely a figurehead in the position, but at all times he has been an active, integral Officer of our Council. He has faithfully given of himself and his precious time, imparting his words of wisdom and guidance. His inspiration in all phases of our work—Council, Religious, and Fraternal—has guided us over many a rough spot, keeping us heading and performing in the right direction. He is always there with a compliment and credit when called for; and by the same token, he is quick to admonish us when we stray from the principles of Columbianism.

We in North Olmsted Council continue to benefit; because we are indeed fortunate to have as our Chaplain a man who in every sense of the word has been an active, dedicated servant of the Council—a real man.

Therefore, you are respectfully requested to make every effort to attend the February 1st Meeting. You too can personally say thanks to Father Wagner and extend your hand in appreciation as a member of North Olmsted Council, Knights of Columbus.
See you there!!!

DEGREE TEAMS INITIATE

Both the First and Second Degree Teams were back in action on Sunday, January 22, with candidates present from N. Olmsted, Avon, Strongsville, and Lorain 637.

We extend a welcome and congratulations to a new Knight: Bro. Joseph T. Hassoun; to his wife Shirley; and to the little Hassouns. Joe received both his 1st and 2nd Degrees along with Bro. John Bovenzi who received his 2nd Degree.

MONEY MAKING SCHEMES

The North Olmsted JayCeers are sponsoring a 1967 West Side Eating and Entertainment Guide. They have invited other organizations to join them in this venture. Not ones to pass up a buck, we latched onto the idea and intend to get behind this with a big push.

Here's the way it works: The books sell for $5.00 each; we keep $2.00 and turn $3.00 over to the JayCeers. For every ten (10) books we sell, we get one free to sell for ourselves.

The Council has taken 100 of these books with a $1.00 deposit required on each.

All of us have received similar offers in the mail at one time or another. The nice thing about this book is that all of the places are on the West Side such as: Elzonnas, Executive Club, Bar-4 Steak House, Town Crier Inn, Uncle John's, Arby's, Shakers. For play there is the Putt-Putt Golf and bowling at either Buckeye Lanes or Westgate. Following dinner, you can go to the Berea Little Theatre.

PGK Ace Spakowski is in charge of this caper, and for full information or books give Ace a jingle on the Ameebe at 777-2419.

SQUIRES CIRCLE

Sunday, January 22, saw the first meeting of the recently re-activated Columbian Squires Circle, Fr. Culliton #1390. Guiding the boys through their paces were our Youth Activity Chairman Dick Tischer, and GPC Len Emery. Elections to the various Circle positions are held in June, and Dick has appointed the following boys to serve in the interim.

Chief Squire—Carl Roach
Deputy Chief Squire—Henry Asher
Notary—Robert Harrison
Bursar—Roger Zedick
Marshal—Joseph Corrigan
Positions still to be filled are 1 Sentry, 3 Auditors, and 2 Captains.

Meetings will be the First and Third Sundays of each month, and for the present time will be at St. Brendan's Hall. As soon as more boys from St. Richard join (only 5 so far), it is hoped that one of the meetings can be held in each Church each month.

Twenty-three (23) of the Squires were in attendance at the first meeting.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Remember the K of C Track Meet on February 18 at the Cleveland Arena. You are asked to call Bro. Clare Tyler (777-3651) for your Booster contribution (remember the $1.00 bit, fellas?), tickets, or any information.

Your attention is again called to The Bishop O'Reilly, General Assembly, Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus. The Assembly is considering applications for membership in the April 30th Class. Contact either Sir Knights, Don Kobak (777-3496) or Henry Kleinhenz (777-4615) for information.

NEW ROSTER MAILED

Everyone, without exception, should have in their hot, little hands the new Roster effective January 1, 1967. We ask that you do not take this Roster and relegate it to some dark corner in a drawer. At least when you put it aside, we ask that you remember where. A lot of long, hard work went into the compilation.

You notice that once again the Roster is readable, and we might add, fewer pages. Our Deputy Grand Knight, Ray Hepler, has again generously donated the cost of having all the pages Xeroxed. So, thanks a big heap, Ray.

We hope you understand and forgive us for a few errors that were made. Being mere mortals, things are bound to happen like this. We just hope that we got the right wife with the right husband.

ROSTER CHANGES (ALREADY?)

Yep, that's right. No sooner has the Roster hit the street, and we already have some work to do. Please do the following:

FINANCIAL SECRETARY NEWS

Bro. Jim Wilkins has mailed out dues notices for the First Quarter of 1967. Each notice shows the amount necessary to pay your dues for the entire year of 1967.

Our Financial Secretary has estimated that if each Brother would pay his dues on an annual basis, the savings to the Council in postage alone would be over $60.00 per year!!

ISABELLA GUILD HAT SHOW

The Ladies of the Isabellas are figuring to give Lily Dache a run for her money. (In case you guys don't know who Lily is or was, just one of the world's top hat designers.)

At any rate, the North Olmsted Isabella Guild will have a Pre-Easter Hat Style Show and Tea, at the North Olmsted Community Cabin. Featured will be hats which are copies of Paris creations and will be on sale for $2.00 to $5.00. This is not a closed affair, but is open to the public.

When: March 12, 1967

Where: North Olmsted Community Cabin

Donation: $-.50

Time: 3 to 5:00 P.M.

Chairmen: Mrs. Leon Lasky, 777-6785

Mrs. Robert Pietrykowski, 777-4429

Brothers, we urge you to talk up this matter with your Lady friends (wives, Mothers, sisters). Any monies made on this affair will inure directly to our benefit in the future. Proceeds are placed in their kitchen fund.
