

THIS THE WEARIN' OF THE GREEN, MARCH 17TH

ISABELLA GUILD HAT STYLE SHOW MARCH 12TH

ST. PATRICK'S DAY DANCE

It's a well-established fact that most of us have St. Patrick to thank for an excuse to let our hair down a wee bit following the bleak, wintry season. As we know, St. Patrick (really an Italian) chased the snakes out of Ireland. Many local citizens are hopeful that the snakes are banished from North Olmsted.

What we're trying to say is get yourselves ready and plan to attend our dance — wear some green — bring a potted shamrock. Get that party together, bring your friends and neighbors.

Guess who's the Dance Chairman? None other than that good friend of the Irish, "Tiny" Vitello.

Where: St. Richard Church Hall.

Time: 9:30 to 12:30.

Tickets: $3.00 per couple.

Music: The Cavaliers.

Refreshments: Wash and chips available. Call "Tiny" at CL 2-2451 for table reservations.

ISABELLA GUILD HAT SHOW AND TEA

Co-Chairmen, Pat Lasky and Cathy Pietrykowski, report that all is in readiness for a touch of Spring on Sunday, March 12. Your spirits will be buoyed up. We men have known for years that the way to a woman's heart is a new bit of finery. And let's face facts: The selection of hats will be excellent and are copies of Paris creations; so, where else can one purchase a bonnet for $2.00 to $5.00?

Ladies, come and bring your friends. This is not a closed affair, but is open to the public. What: Pre-Easter Hat Style Show and Tea. When: March 12, 1967.

Where: North Olmsted Community Cabin.

Time: 3:00 to 5:00 P.M.

Chairmen: Mrs. Leon Lasky, 777-6785, Mrs. Robert Pietrykowski, 777-4429.

Proceeds will go into the Kitchen Fund of the Isabella treasury. For our own selfish reasons, Brothers, urge your wives to attend.

COUNCIL RAMBLINGS

On February 17th, the Council First Degree Team initiated four new members into the Council. They were among Candidates from Fr. Ragan and Berea Councils. We welcome the following new Brother Knights to North Olmsted Council:

- Angelo J. Rinaldi
- Lindberg Forcellini
- William T. Harmon
- Raymond J. Cooney

On February 24th, the Second Degree Team conducted the Second Degree.

Speaking of Degree Teams, anyone interested in becoming a part of either the First or Second Degree Team is most welcome. It is really very gratifying work.

We were pleasantly surprised at the meeting of February 15th by the guest appearance of several visiting dignitaries, District Deputy, John Dailey, from District 16 came out to observe for himself what makes North Olmsted tick. It seems as how we enjoy a fine reputation in K of C Circles, and John wished to see for himself what all the talk was about. We are affectionately known hereabouts as the "Irish" Council; and also visiting us from Garfield Heights Council No. 4130 (The Fighting Poles) were Tom Zingali, G.K.; Lou Popish, D.G.K.; and Mike Letschko, Financial Secretary.

The Council is currently studying the feasibility of holding a "Las Vegas Night" in the near future. Bro. John Bovenzi has been appointed Chairman, and we'll have more about this later.

Carol Vollmer recently spent some time in Fairview Park Hospital. Certainly hope she has a speedy recovery for two very good reasons—Bro. Ralph and baby Andrew.

Bro. John Dodd has been named as Chairman for the Council's Excellence in Religion essay contest. John did a top-notch job last year with the youngsters submitting essays on an aspect of the Catholic Faith. Working with Bro. Dodd will be Catholic Activity Chairman, John Freeborn.

Our announced guest speaker, Bro. Bob De-catur from Cleveland Council, was not able to attend due to family illness. So, on the day of the February 15th meeting, Bro. Fran Murray, was able to line up Mr. Kyle Cronin, an attorney who is actively engaged in Inter-Group problems especially related to integrated, open housing. Mr. Cronin's comments and answers were very timely and thought-provoking.

It has been known for a long time that many Members have not been receiving the monthly Columbia Magazine from Supreme Council. We hope that this situation will correct itself in the near future. Our Financial Secretary, Bro. Jim Wilkins, has sent in to New Haven a complete up-to-date list of names and addresses of all Council Brothers, and if everything goes as planned everyone should be receiving their copy shortly. The Columbia is an excellent periodical, well-written, and enlightening.

The State Council has decreed that all Councils in the State of Ohio initiate a Social Action Program. The groundwork has been laid in our Council by Fr. Wagner. Very briefly, the Program is patterned along the same lines as the Christian Family Movement with "cells" formed consisting of 5 to 8 members whose purpose it is to spread the Faith. Leaders will study the Vatican II Decrees and in turn will work with the "cell." We'll have more details on this later, but it is in line with what we have been saying for years, "Don't keep the Faith. Spread it around."

COLUMBIAN SQUIRES CIRCLE

The regular meeting of Sunday, February 19th saw 24 Squires in attendance with Chief Squire, Carl Roach, with the gravel. The adult advisors present were Bro. Knights Fr. A. Anthony Muzic who is the Father Prior; Richard Tischer; Leonard Emery; Richard Waytko; and John Bovenzi. Following is the complete list of young men who are the appointed Officers of the Circle:

- Chief Squire — Carl Roach.
- Deputy Chief Squire — Henry Asher.
- Notary — Robert Harrison.
- Bursar — Roger Zedick.
- Marshal — Joseph Corrigan.
- Sentry — Jeff Roach.
- Auditors — Robert Zedick, Ed Favre, Terry Small.
- Captains — Jim Calvitti and Gary Kollm.
