ST. PATRICK "SHAMROCK SHUFFLE" - MARCH 17 SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS ANNOUNCED

Dance — Dance — Dance

Dance Chairman, "Tiny" Viello, reminds us that he is taking table reservations for the night of March 17. No, it's not a spaghetti dinner or a pizza party. It's good, ole' St. Patrick's Day!!! A time for fun and frolic!!! A DANCE!!!

Do you feel down in the dumps? Does everything look dreary? Well then, brothers and sisters, put on a little bit of green and come on out to the dance. We'll provide the Barney Stone and the Leprechauns and the music. You bring yourselves, your friends, your own Shamrock. Can you imagine what's goin' to happen when all these things and people get together? This dance is open to the following classes of people: Irishmen — friends of Irishmen — those who wish they were Irish — and to anyone who happens to know an Irishman. So, who's left? Nobody, that's who. In other words, everyone is welcome.

Keep in mind that the dance is on a Friday Night.

One more question — when is the last time anyone has seen a real, honest-to-goodness Shamrock plant?

Where: St. Richard Church Hall
Time: 9:30 to 12:30
Tickets: $3.00 per couple

Music: The Cavaliers
Refreshments: Wash and etc., available. Call "Tiny" at CL 2-2451 for table reservations.
Some of the early reservations were received from O'Kucharick, O'Susic, and OZsigoi!!!

SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS NAMED

Father Wagner, together with the Scholarship Committee under the Chairmanship of PGK Ace Spakowski, is pleased to announce the winners of our Sixth Annual Scholarship Awards. Linda Weidner, daughter of Bro. Matt Weidner, has qualified for a renewal of her scholarship. This will be the fourth year Linda has benefited from our program, and she will be a Senior at Magnificat High next fall.

Also receiving a renewal scholarship is Cheryl Keopinski from St. Brendan Parish who will be a Sophomore at St. Peter High School.

The following students were selected for "new" scholarships and will be starting in

Freshmen and eligible for renewals:

James Torpenson, 26682 Cranage Road, Olmsted Falls. Jim is from St. Mary of the Falls Parish.

Linda Sue Haas, 5072 Whitehorn, North Olmsted. Linda attends St. Richard Parish.

SCHOLARSHIP ARTICLE

We are particularly pleased that the Council this year has made available an additional scholarship. Our budgeted funds for the past two years has called for (4) four scholarships. When it was learned that many wonderful children in the area would not be attending a Catholic High School because of the lack of money, our Grand Knight, Hugh Patton, felt that the Council should seek a way and do its small part in providing the means for at least one more child to be enrolled in our Program. Well, Brothers, your efforts in selling those Entertainment Guide and Eating Books brought results. We made enough money to sponsor one more scholarship. This particular scholarship is not awarded on a renewal basis, but is for this year only.

The winner of this fifth award is: Christopher Murray, 5142 Andrus, North Olmsted.

When our Scholarship Program started out, we had only one scholarship to award. As you can see now, the Program has grown to its present size. It is doubtful if the Program will be expanded further. We have other areas in which to budget our State Youth income, and we simply don't earn enough money to sponsor more scholarships.

As a point of interest, since the start of the Scholarship Program, we have awarded a total of 21 scholarships distributed as follows:

- St. Richard — 13
- St. Mary of the Falls — 4
- St. Bernadette — 2
- St. Brendan — 2
