SQUIRES INSTALLATION NOVEMBER 19

ANNUAL POTLUCK DINNER DECEMBER 9

ANNUAL POTLUCK DINNER

Chief Counselor, Dick Tischer, advises that the Officers of Fr. Culliton Circle, No. 1390, will be officially installed on Sunday, November 19 at 2:30 P.M. at St. Brendan Hall. A cordial invitation is extended to all the Brother Knights (and in particular to the Officers of the Council) to attend the ceremonies.

In addition, a special invitation is hereby extended to the Parents of the Squires. Bro. Tischer feels that it would be of interest to the Parents to attend so that they can learn first-hand the nature of a Squires Circle and perhaps understand its purpose.

The Installation Ceremony is quite impressive and the attendance in the audience by the Knights and Parents will show the boys of our interest in their Circle.

The following boys will be installed:

- Chief Squire ..... Carl Roach
- Deputy Chief Squire ..... Craig Lashinger
- Bursar ..... Robert Zeitick
- Notary ..... Gary Kollm
- Marshal ..... Terrence Emery
- Sentry ..... ..
- Captains ..... Jeff Roach and Joseph Corrigan
- Auditors ..... Michael Quinn, James Kilroy, and Joseph Gaspar

Incidentally, Dick Tischer still has the call out for additional Counselors from the Council Membership to assist in working with the Squires Circle. Again, if several men of the Council are interested to help fill this need, kindly call Dick at 235-4628.

REGULAR MEETING DEC. 6

Our Lecturer, Tiny Vitello, feels that this Regular Meeting could prove to be one of the most interesting held by the Council in years. It is hoped that final arrangements can be made to hold the Meeting at the Dover Wherry, 24945 Detroit Road. New clubrooms are being built by the Wherry, and a tour will be conducted. More information in next issue.

COLUMBUS PARADE FLOAT

Again North Olmsted Council went first-class in sponsoring a float in the Columbus Day Parade. Perhaps you saw us going down Euclid Avenue in person; or next best you saw the float on the news programs on Channels 3 and 8 that evening, either in color or living black and white.

Isabella Guild President, Shirley Wolfe, was costumed as Queen Isabella; Our Inside Guard, John McLaughlin, was decked out as a Guard; and yours truly rode on the poop deck, costumed as Chris Columbus himself.

It is no easy task to assemble a float of this type, being a 3-quarter scale of the Santa Maria. Our Grand Knight, Ray Hepler, arranged for the trailer and most of the material used to build it. Ray, together with PGK Ben Lyons, were the Marine Engineers and design consultants. Swinging hammers, hanging the sails, etc., were Joe Kucharik, Ed Majors, John McLaughlin, Bob Gomola, and a number of other Brother Knights who so ably pitched in with their labor. We're sorry we cannot recall all of their names at this time.

A special thanks goes to Agnes Lyons and the children (you too, Ben) for the use of your backyard in constructing the float, putting up with the confusion, etc.

The only sad note in the entire affair was that we failed to win a prize with the float. We thought we had the best entry. If we should ever enter a float in the parade again, it would do us well to officially reserve a Council table at the banquet in the evening sponsored by the Greater Cleveland Chapter.

WELCOME TO NEW MEMBERS

A FEW RAMBLINGS

We are most pleased and happy to announce officially the appointment of Rev. John E. Lesniak, as our Chaplain. It seems that we have been truly blessed again by this appointment — a Priest who is actively interested in the K of C. Fr. Lesniak is also a Sir Knight in the Fourth Degree.

We had the opportunity of listening to Fr. Lesniak's words of wisdom and timeliness for the first time at our meeting of November 1. Welcome to our Council, Father, and may our association be mutually enjoyable and rewarding.

A decision has been reached concerning our Quarterly Communion. In the hopes of promoting better turnouts and as a matter of convenience, our Quarterly Communion will be held at only the two (2) Parishes in North Olmsted—St. Richard and St. Brendan.

Dick Tischer was the lucky winner of the door prize at the November 1st meeting, being the free 5 gallons of gas, lube job, oil change, and filter so graciously donated by Bro. John Horchy (Marathan Station at Butternut and Lorain Roads).

Bill Harmon won $8.75 on the 50-50 Club Drawing which was resumed at the last meeting. Did Bill tell you about this, Doris? Proceeds from these drawings will be used to purchase a Council tape recorder.
