Ladies -

It's time to get social with the ladies from Las Senoras. We've got a wonderful fall event planned, so find yourself a witch's hat, fire up your broom, and head on over to the Flying E Ranch for some fall fun.

“Because some days you just have to put on the witch hat so they know who they’re dealing with...”

Las Senoras de Socorro is the ladies' auxiliary for the Western Desert Caballeros Western Museum. Our mission: raise money for the Museum... and have fun doing it!

Please mark your calendars and plan on joining us. This event will be open to everyone, so if you have girlfriends that might enjoy an afternoon out, please invite them along. And tell them not to forget their hat!

Order your tickets at <https://www.tickettailor.com/events/lassenoras/1001894>

Good to know:

Lunch choices are Pulled Pork Sandwich with pasta salad, Grilled Chicken Breast with pasta salad, Vegetarian plate. Iced tea, coffee and pumpkin pie are included.

There will be a No Host cash bar with beer wine and a special Witch's Brew.

If you don't have a hat you can purchase one from the Las Senoras collection @ (<https://lassenoras.org/fall-fling-1> (prices will vary based on decor.) Amazon has many options as well.

Of course, there will be a wonderful raffle along with other "tricks & treats" - be sure to put a few extra bucks in your witch's hat, you don't want to miss out on the fun.
